EVANGELIZATION SOCIETY (LONDON), SCOTTISH BRANCH.

OFFICES, 13 GEORGE STREET, EDINBURGH. Telephone—7330 Central.

Scottish Superintendent, F. Wycliffe Pascoe, 13 George Street, Edinburgh. Number of meetings taken annually in Great Britain, over 20,000. Income, £11,000 per year.

The Evangelization Society is a company of preachers associated to preach the Gospel. As individuals they belong to various denominations of the Christian Church, but as Evangelists they belong to none. They go out through the Evangelization Society, not as members of any particular Church, but only as Evangelists, to preach the Evangel. The Society was established in 1864. Over one thousand Missions are supplied annually with Evangelists in England, Scotland, and Wales, on the application of Clergymen, Ministers, and others. As no stated charge is made for the services of its preachers, no place need be without the Gospel at the hands of the Evangelist so long as this Society exists.

The Boys' Brigade was instituted in Glasgow in 1883 with 1 Company, 3 Officers, and 30 boys. It has grown into a great organisation, covering all parts of the kingdom, and numbering, according to the last returns on 31st May 1909, 1396 Companies, 6350 Officers, 2092 staff sergeants, and 63,122 boys in the United Kingdom alone, not counting the great development of the movement in the United States, Canada, Australia, Cape Colony, and other parts of the world.

The Brigade has met a felt want, and has supplied a link in the chain of Christian work which had hitherto been to a large extent wanting.

Its object, in the words of the Constitution, is "The advancement of Christ's Kingdom among Boys, and the promotion of habits of obedience, reverence, discipline, self-respect, and all that tends towards a true Christian manliness."

This object is attained by banding the Boys together in Companies, under duly qualified men as Officers; by creating among them an esprit de corps, which gives them a proper pride in their Company, and a strong incentive to do nothing unworthy of it; by taking up everything that should enter into healthy Boy-life, and bringing it all under Christian influence and control.

L. Leonard Bilton, Secretary of the Edinburgh Battalion, will be glad to give full information to any one desirous of forming a Company of The Boys' Brigade.

ADVERTISERS*

THE DOMINATING POWER

QUALITY in Printing is determined by the ideal of the printer. The earliest printers were artists of a high order... Then the printer's mark signified that the work it adorned was... the expression of his personality, the portrayal of his ideal, the offspring of his genius.

Printing then was not merely the mechanical operation of impressing type upon paper. But it was not destined to remain alone the handmaid of Art, Literature, and Religion, and History's Recording Angel.

The discovery of new and simpler processes, the multiplication of machinery and methods, soon extended the sphere of the press, and its influence has now invaded every field of human endeavour and activity, until it has become the dominating power in the extension of the world's commerce and trade.

OBJECTS AND OPERATIONS.

Instituted in 1875, the Union embraces over 600 societies with a membership of over 80,000. The motto of the Union is 'PREVENTION IS BETTER THAN CURE.' The objects of the Union are (1) to train the children to love the Saviour who said 'Suffer the little children to come unto Me,' to follow whatsoever things are true, honest, pure, lovely, and of good report, and to abstain from alcoholic drinks and other narcotics; and (2) generally to safeguard the young by inculcating the principles and advantages of Temperance or Self Control. These objects are attained by visitation, conferences, musical demonstrations, training of choirs, prize competitions, lectures, dissemination of Temperance literature, furnishing Band of Hope requisites, etc., Day and Industrial Schools, Orphanages, and Reformatories, being also included in the sphere of operations. The Union is supported entirely by voluntary contributions, and the growth of the work is such that the Annual Income is quite inadequate to meet the expenses. Subscriptions, Donations, and Legacies are therefore urgently required. Fuller information can be had from the Secretary.

HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN EDINBURGH.

FARES BY DISTANCE.

The distance to which any hackney carriage may be driven under these bye-laws shall be eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh; and the driver of a hackney carriage shall not at any time convey more than five adults in or on such carriage.

1. The fares for a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter hired from a theatre or other place of public resort shall be reckoned as from the nearest stance, when the same is within half a mile, otherwise the fare shall be computed according to No. 5 of this bye-law. The charges specified shall include going from the stance or stable to take up the party hiring at any point within half a mile therefrom, and waiting for ten minutes. Where the distance driven for taking up shall exceed half a mile from the stance or stable whence the carriage is taken, a charge of sixpence for every mile or part thereof shall be allowed after the free half mile; and if the carriage be detained before starting for more than ten minutes, a charge for waiting at the rate of 6d. for each quarter of an hour or part thereof after the expiry of the ten minutes shall be allowed.

2. There shall be no charge for waiting while a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter is on the way to a destination unless the waiting before starting and the waiting by the way exceeds in all ten minutes; and when such waiting exceeds ten minutes it shall be charged for in terms of No. 1 of this bye-law. There shall be no charge for a short deviation from the direct route.

3. The fare to any place not mentioned in the Table shall be the same as to any place mentioned therein which is in the immediate vicinity.

4. In the event of any new stance being appointed during the currency of these regulations, the fares from said new stance shall be the same as from the stance nearest to it, when the same is within half a mile.

5. When the fare of any particular place not mentioned cannot be ascertained by reference to a place in the immediate vicinity, the fare for any distance not exceeding a mile and a quarter shall be as follows, viz. :—

For any number of passengers not exceeding four . . . .	1s. 0d.
For five passengers . . . .	1s. 6d.
And for every additional half mile or part thereof . . . .	6d.

6. When the party returns half fare only shall be payable, and the carriage shall wait ten minutes without any charge for waiting; if the carriage be detained longer, a charge shall be allowed for waiting, at the rate of 6d. for every quarter of an hour or part thereof, commencing when the free waiting expires.

7. When a hackney carriage is called but not used, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, if the place to which it is called be under half a mile from the stance or stable, and 1s. if beyond that distance. Waiting shall be charged for as under No. 1 of this bye-law.

FARES BY TIME.

1. The hirer may engage a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter by time when the same is to be used within the municipal bounds, for SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous, and does not exceed two-thirds of the time during which the carriage may be engaged. The charge in such cases shall be 2s. for the first hour or part thereof for any number of passengers not exceeding four, and 6d. for every additional quarter of an hour or part thereof. When five passengers are driven 6d. extra shall be allowed on the total fare. When the carriage is discharged at a greater distance than a mile from the point where the same was engaged, a charge shall be allowed for returning thereto at the rate of half the distance fare.

2. For an AIRING into the country within eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning, and for continuous driving within the municipal bounds, in a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter, the rate shall be 3s. for the first hour or part thereof, and 1s. for every additional twenty minutes or part thereof. Unless the hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when a carriage is engaged by time shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the hirer, it shall be optional for the hirer to pay the fare at the rate of 3s. for every six miles so travelled. The above rate is for four passengers. When five passengers are driven 6d. extra shall be added to the total fare.

3. Notice of the intention to pay by time must be given by the hirer at the commencement of the engagement, otherwise the fare may be charged by distance. The charges under Nos. 1 and 2 of this bye-law shall include going from the stance or stable to take up the party hiring from any point within half a mile therefrom, and where a greater distance is driven for taking up, a charge of 6d. for every mile or part thereof after the free half mile shall be allowed.

DOUBLE FARE.

1. Between 12 o'clock midnight and 7 o'clock in the morning double fare shall be allowed in the case of fares either by distance or by time, but this shall not apply to the charge for luggage.

2. There shall be no additional charge when two horses are used by the owner without being required to do so; but if two horses be used at the request of a hirer, the charge shall be fare and a half.

LUGGAGE.

The hirer of a hackney carriage shall not be charged for luggage under 100 lbs. in weight, but where it exceeds that weight, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, and in no case shall a driver be bound to convey more than 1 cwt. of luggage. A charge of 6d. shall be allowed for the carriage of a bicycle, mail-cart, or perambulator. The driver shall assist in loading and unloading luggage in all cases when required, but shall not be compelled to leave the immediate proximity of his hackney carriage in doing so.

4. The driver of a hackney carriage fitted with a taximeter shall, as soon as he is hired, and no sooner, set the taximeter in motion, unless in the case of going to lift, when the driver shall not set the taximeter in motion until the free distance of not exceeding half a mile provided for under Horse-drawn Hackney Carriages, No. 2, has been covered. He shall, while engaged, have the flag of his taximeter lowered to the "hired" position, and immediately upon the termination of the hiring he shall stop the taximeter, but shall not remove the fare record from the disc thereof until the hirer has examined or has had an opportunity of examining the same.

5. In the event of the mechanism of the carriage breaking down, or in any way becoming unfit to convey the hirer to the destination for which the carriage is engaged, the driver shall not be entitled to charge any fare for the distance already travelled, provided that, should the hirer elect to wait until repairs are completed, the full fare recorded on the completion of the journey shall be exigible, less the amount of fare chargeable for waiting in accordance with the rate for waiting fixed under these bye-laws.

Should the taximeter record a fare which is obviously not in accordance with the distance travelled, or should the taximeter stop recording during a journey, the fare in case of dispute shall be ascertained by measurement by the Hackney Carriage Inspector.

GENERAL.

In all cases two children over six and under twelve years of age, shall be reckoned as one adult; but no additional charge shall be made for one such child, or for a child under six years of age.

RATES OF POSTAGE, AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

INLAND LETTERS.

The prepaid rates of postage are as follows, viz.:—

For a letter not exceeding 4 oz. . . . . 1d.
For every additional 2 oz. . . . .  $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; and if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

Every letter should bear the name and address of the sender in order to ensure its return in case of non-delivery.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length, 1 foot in width, or 1 foot in depth, unless it be sent to or from a Government office.

COLONIAL & FOREIGN LETTERS.

The rate of postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom on letters for all Foreign Countries (except Egypt, the United States of America, and the places in Morocco where there are British Post Office Agencies) is  $2\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ounce, and  $1\frac{1}{2}$ d. for succeeding ounce or fraction thereof; but to British Possessions generally (including Egypt, the United States of America, and the places in Morocco where there are British Post Office Agencies) the letter rate is 1d. per ounce. Dutiable articles, if sent by letter post, may be subjected to fine or confiscated if the place of destination so prescribes.

Letters posted unpaid, or paid only in part, to any country where prepayment is compulsory, are returned to the writers. Letters so posted for other countries are forwarded, but are charged on delivery with double the deficiency.

Unpaid letters from Egypt, the United States of America, and the British Agencies to which penny postage applies are chargeable 2d. per half ounce. Unpaid letters from all other places are chargeable 5d. per half ounce. Partially paid letters are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 5d. per half ounce.

Letters not specially directed by a particular route are, as a rule, forwarded by the first mail despatched.

Letters for Russia should have the name of the town and province added in English, French, or German.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in breadth or depth.

POST CARDS.

Official post cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp, or reply cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each portion, can be bought at every Post Office.

Nothing whatever may be attached except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label not exceeding 2 inches long and  $\frac{1}{4}$  inch broad, bearing the address at which the card is to be delivered, and a similar label bearing the name and address of the sender; engravings, illustrations, drawings, and photographs, on very thin paper and completely adherent to the card; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. An inland post card is transmissible for abroad if the additional postage is made by postage stamps. If any of these rules be infringed, the card ceases to be a post card, and is treated as a letter, and liable to the usual charges on delivery.

A private card becomes a post card when it has a halfpenny stamp affixed to its face. It must be composed of ordinary cardboard, not thicker than the material used for the official post cards, and not thinner than the material used for the thinnest. They may not exceed  $5\frac{1}{2}$  in. in length by  $3\frac{1}{2}$  in. in width, or less than 4 in. in length by  $2\frac{1}{2}$  in. in width. The rules stated in the preceding paragraph also apply to private cards with one exception, viz. that which relates to cutting and altering. The essential feature of the private post card is that it must be prepaid. A private card posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, post cards may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery (unless paid for and posted as late letters).

Inland.—Post cards are sold at the rate of (thin,  $5\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$  in.; thick,  $4\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$  in.)  $5\frac{1}{2}$ d. for every 10; reply cards, at double rates; parcels of 110 stout cards, 5s.; 220 thin cards, 10s.

Foreign.—Official post cards, single and reply, are transmissible to all parts of the world. Single cards are issued with impressed stamps of a 1d., and reply cards bearing stamps of the value of 1d. on each half. Inland post cards are also transmissible abroad if the additional postage required is supplied by means of postage stamps affixed to the cards on the address side. Unpaid post cards from places abroad are charged 2d. each. Partially paid cards are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 2d.

Private post cards bearing adhesive stamps of the value of 1d. and private reply cards with adhesive stamps of the value of 1d. on each half may be sent as post cards to places abroad, provided they are in conformity with the official post cards.

INLAND NEWSPAPERS.

For each inland newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, the postage, when prepaid, is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate of postage than would be chargeable on an ordinary packet of printed matter of the same weight.

A newspaper or a packet of newspapers posted unpaid is charged double postage, and if posted insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency.

Any publication fulfilling the following conditions can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for circulation within the United Kingdom as a newspaper.

The conditions are as follows:—

The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom, and must be published in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days.

The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication at the top of every subsequent page; and this regulation applies to 'Tables of Contents' and 'Indexes.'

A supplement must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on a sheet or sheets, or a piece or pieces of paper put together at some one part of the newspapers, whether gummed or stitched up with the newspapers or not; or it must wholly or in part consist of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the paper. It must in every case be published with the newspaper, and have the title of the newspaper printed at the top of every page, or at the top of every sheet, or side on which any such engraving, print, or lithograph appears. The supplement or supplements issued with any number of a registered newspaper may not exceed the newspaper itself in bulk.

Every newspaper or packet of newspapers may be posted either with or without a cover, but entirely open at both ends, and folded so as to admit of easy examination; and in order to ensure their return in case of non-delivery, the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return, must be placed on the upper left hand corner.

A registered newspaper, or a packet of registered newspapers, must not contain any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it, otherwise such will be charged as a letter, or is transferred to the Parcel Post and charged with a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient parcel postage, whichever charge is the lower.

Newspapers not registered at the G.P.O. are treated like any other printed matter.

A packet must not exceed 5 lbs. in weight, or exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

HALFPENNY PACKETS.

The undermentioned articles are transmissible for a postage of one halfpenny provided that they conform to the regulations given below, and do not exceed 2 oz. in weight. Above that weight they are liable to the letter postage of one penny for the first 4 oz., and one halfpenny for every additional 2 oz., and are subject to the letter post regulations. Halfpenny packets if posted unpaid are chargeable with double postage.

By way of exception the benefit of this post is extended to the documents specified below, although they may contain matter in the nature of a letter, provided they respectively conform to the following conditions:—

Description of Document.—(a) Commercial or business papers of a formal character, viz. invoices, orders for goods or for work, confirmations of orders, advice notes of the dispatch or receipt of letters, documents, goods, or money (with or without instructions for their further treatment), way-bills, bills of lading, receipts for goods or money, statements of account, price lists, prices current, market reports, delivery and shipping notes, tenders for goods or advertisements, quotations for goods, estimates for work, inquiries for quotations, contract notes, confirmations of contracts, share transfer notices, and such other similar documents as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe.

Notices of assessments and applications for payment of rates issued by overseers or other officers employed in the collection of rates.

Notices relating to the registration of voters at parliamentary and local government elections.

Notices, certificates, reports, and returns given or made to or by public officers and local authorities or other public bodies in the discharge of their public duties.

Lists and tabular statements.

Conditions.—That the document consists of a printed form,* and that any writing refer solely to its subject-matter or consist of formulas or courtesy or of a conventional character not exceeding five words or initials.

(b) Deeds, agreements, proposals and policies of insurance, and formal papers necessarily incident to insurance, power of attorney, proxy papers, licences, voting papers, and certificates.

That nothing appear in the document in writing which does not form part of the document as a legal or formal instrument.

(c) Circulars (that is, printed notices and letters), printed visiting cards, Christmas, New Year, Easter, and birthday cards.

That nothing appear in writing in the document except—

1. Dates, hours, and particulars of times.
2. The names, addresses, and descriptions of parties.
3. The particulars of goods and of sums of money.
4. The mode of consignment or delivery of goods or money.
5. The terms on which business is transacted.
6. Index or reference numbers and letters.
7. Corrections of errors in print.
8. The place, character, and objects of meetings or appointments.
9. Formulas of courtesy or of a conventional character not exceeding five words or initials.

(d) Manuscript for press and printed proofs (including information for insertion in directories and similar publications) with corrections and instructions.

That any writing not forming part of the document itself refer solely to the arrangement or correction of the type or to the execution of the work.

(e) Educational exercises and examination papers with comments, corrections, and instructions.

That any writing not forming part of the document itself refer solely to the subject-matter of the exercise or to the questions put or the answer thereto.

By "printing" is meant any species of type-printing easy to recognise, or any mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies of written matter, and easy to recognise, such as lithography and hand stamping.

* A printed form within the meaning of the regulations is one bearing printed matter clearly indicating the purpose for which the form is intended to be used. The form must be appropriate, e.g. an ordinary memorandum form may not be used.

Documents wholly or partly printed in type-written characters, or reproduced from a type-written original by a mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies, are not admissible by the halfpenny post unless—

- (a) They are handed in at a Head or Branch Post Office. (Such documents are also accepted provisionally at Town Sub-offices and at certain of the more important Rural Sub-offices, subject to their being found to be in order when examined at the Head office, to which they will be sent);
- (b) Special attention is drawn to the fact that they are printed or reproduced in type-written characters;
- (c) At least twenty copies are posted at the same time.

“Writing” includes type-writing and any mechanical or other process ordinarily used to produce a single document.

There may also be transmitted by the halfpenny packet post—

- (1) Sketches, drawings, paintings, photographs, engravings, maps, plans, and charts on paper or some substance ordinarily used for the purpose, provided it be not a brittle or exceptionally fragile substance.
- (2) Blotting books and pads, and coloured papers attached to price lists and trade circulars.
- (3) The binding or mounting of any article sent by the halfpenny packet post, provided it be of a kind ordinarily used for the purpose, be not made of glass or any brittle or exceptionally fragile substance, and be transmitted in the same packet with the article in respect of which it is used.
- (4) Anything necessary or convenient for the safe transmission by post of any of the above-mentioned articles.

No other article or document can be sent by the halfpenny packet post, and in particular the post cannot be used for goods, samples, or patterns unless they come within the foregoing descriptions.

Every halfpenny packet is subject to examination in the post. Every halfpenny packet must be posted either without a cover or in an unfastened envelope, or in a cover which can be easily removed for the purposes of examination without breaking any seal or tearing any paper or separating any adhering surfaces. A packet posted without a cover may not be fastened or otherwise treated so as to prevent easy examination. No halfpenny packet may contain or bear any communication in the nature of a letter, not being matter coming within the definition of such packet or being expressly allowed. No paper money may be post-d or conveyed or delivered by post in a halfpenny packet. This rule does not apply to a halfpenny packet containing a stamped proxy paper, or to a halfpenny packet containing a stamped and addressed post card, wrapper, or envelope forwarded by the sender of the packet in order that such card, wrapper, or envelope may be returned through the post to such sender or some person designated by him.

If any of the rules relating to a halfpenny packet be infringed, the halfpenny packet will be treated as a letter.

Packets prepaid one halfpenny bearing on the outside the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery are delivered to the sender on payment of a second postage. Such request must be placed on the front of the packet in the upper left hand corner. Those bearing no such request are disposed of.

When, owing to an unusually heavy influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, book packets may be kept back till the next despatch or delivery.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PRINTED PAPERS AND COM- MERCIAL PAPERS.

Articles which may be sent to places abroad under the Book Post Regulations consist of two classes, as follows:—

(a) Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of legal procedure, deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), way bills, bills of lading, invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of insurance and other public companies, all kinds of manuscript music, the manuscript of books and other literary works, letters and post cards of old date, which have already served their original purpose, and pupils' exercises either in original or with corrections, but without any comment on the work, and other papers of a similar description.

(b) Printed Papers, including newspapers, periodical works, books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, sheets of music, visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing engravings, photographs, pictures, drawings, papers impressed for the use of the blind, or cardboard drawing, models stamped in relief, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, auto-graphed, or lithographed, and in general all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or cardboard by means of printing, lithography, autography, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, and anything not being of glass usually attached or belonging to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet. Postage stamps, whether obliterated or not, and all printed articles constituting the sign of a monetary value, are, however, excluded from transmission by Book Post to countries in the Postal Union. On printed visiting cards the address or title of the sender, or conventional initials, such as ‘p. p. c.’ may be written, and also good wishes, congratulations, thanks, condolences, or other formulas of courtesy, expressed in not more than five words. The same rule applies to Christmas and New Years' cards, and may contain the relative invoices, and on printed circulars manuscript corrections and insertions may be made as to names of commercial travellers, dates of their journey, and the places they intend to visit, dates of departure of ships, names of parties invited to meetings, and the place, date, and object of the meetings. Printers' proofs may be corrected in manuscript, as may also figures in prices current, stock and share lists, etc.

Books, papers, music, photographs, and engravings may have a dedication inscribed on them, and the invoice relating to them may be enclosed.

The products of the copying press and type-writer are not admitted at the rate for printed papers; nor as a rule are printed papers, the text of which has been modified after printing either by hand or mechanical process, unless they comply with the foregoing rules.

The rate of postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom on printed papers for all places abroad is  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per 2 oz. The postage on commercial papers is  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for the first 10 oz., and  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per 2 oz. thereafter. If not fully prepaid, double the deficiency will be charged on delivery; if unpaid, they will be stopped.

Printed papers from places abroad, of which the postage is insufficiently prepaid, will be charged on delivery with double the deficient postage within a limit of a 1d. per 2 oz.; and on insufficiently paid commercial papers the charge to be made will not exceed 5d. up to 10 oz., and 1d. per 2 oz. for heavier weights.

Commercial and printed papers may be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in an ordinary letter envelope left wholly unfastened, or in a cover entirely open at both ends so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string which can be easily unfastened.

All books and printed matter imported into the United States through the Post, however small the value, are subject to a duty of 25 per cent. of that value, except periodicals and newspapers already exempt from duty, photographs, and printed papers other than books, received in such small quantities as to suggest that they are for personal use and not for sale.

Books and periodicals addressed to the Republic of Colombia are liable to Customs duties, unless intended for the personal use of the addressee. Books, whether bound or unbound, addressed to Uruguay, are liable to Customs duties unless the whole value of those sent to one addressee is less than 100 francs (£4). All books for Venezuela are prohibited, save unbound books relating to science, arts, or crafts.

Bound books sent to Portugal by post are subject to Customs duty. The wrapper should bear an indication of the nature of the contents, and the words 'en douane.'

The limits of size for packets for the British Colonies or Possessions or to non-Union countries or colonies are  $24 \times 12 \times 12$  inches; but to foreign countries in the Postal Union the length is limited to 18 in. If in the form of a roll the limits of size in either case are  $30 \times 4$  in. To British Colonies or Possessions, and non-Union countries or colonies, the limits of weight are 5 lb.; and for foreign countries in the Postal Union, 4 lb.

In Italy newspapers, periodicals, and illustrated journals, also separate printed sheets (such as notices, circulars, proofs, sheets of music, etc.), must not weigh more than 1000 grammes (2 lbs.  $3\frac{1}{2}$  oz.).

In Belgium books, newspapers, periodicals, maps, charts, printed music, prints, and artistic engravings and lithographs are allowed to be imported by post; but other printed papers are subject to Customs duty; and their transmission by post is prohibited, unless they are sent singly or in small quantities, as specimens.

In France playing cards, engravings, prints, drawings, packets of pictorial post-cards, and all articles of mercantile value are prohibited.

In Spain all books received by post are liable to the ordinary Customs duties, but newspapers and other articles sent for private purposes may be admitted free at the discretion of the Customs authorities.

In Canada advertising pamphlets, circulars, etc., are liable to Customs duty.

In Australia advertising matter, including catalogues, price lists, etc., is liable to Customs duty at the rate of 6d. per lb., but duty is not levied on magazines containing advertisements.

In India works of art (including photographs), ruled and printed forms, account and manuscript books, blotting-pads, labels, advertising circulars, sheet or card almanacks and calendars, Christmas, Easter, and other cards, and toy books, are liable to Customs duties, unless sent in small quantities by private individuals for private use; any such articles considered by the Indian Post Office to be merchandise will be delivered only on payment of Customs charges.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN SAMPLE POST.

The use of the Sample Post to the colonies and foreign countries generally is restricted to bona fide trade samples of merchandise. Packets containing goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually trade samples or scientific specimens, cannot be forwarded by Sample Post.

The postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom is 1d. for the first 4 oz., and  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per 2 oz. thereafter. Insufficiently paid packets are forwarded to places abroad, but are charged on delivery with double the deficiency. If unpaid, they will be stopped. Insufficiently paid packets from places abroad will be charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 2d. up to 4 oz., and of 1d. per 2 oz. for heavier weights.

Samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination. But samples of seeds, drugs, and suchlike articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

There must be no writing or printing upon or in any packet for non-Union countries except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, and the price of the articles, the weight or size and the quantity to be disposed of, or such as may be necessary to indicate the place of origin or the nature of the merchandise. A sample for a country in the Postal Union may contain, besides these particulars, any printed papers, and, if the rate applicable to commercial papers be paid, it may also contain commercial papers.

Special Regulations as to certain articles.—Though under the regulations of the Postal Union the public are not entitled to send articles liable to Customs duty by any other post than the Parcel Post, this rule is relaxed according to the internal laws of the various Union Countries. In the United Kingdom, incoming samples liable to Customs duty are, as a general rule, not objected to when sent in quantities so small as to have practically no saleable value; but no guarantee can be given that outgoing samples will be delivered in the country of destination without payment of Customs duty, or that they will be delivered at all. Outgoing packets of samples of tea are, in general, admissible in the country of destination, if they do not weigh more than eight ounces. The importation of tobacco by Sample Post into the United Kingdom is prohibited, with the sole exception of packets of type samples of unmanufactured tobacco not exceeding four ounces in weight, which are delivered on payment of 1s. Customs duty.

Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, may be sent, provided that they are bona fide samples without saleable value, and are packed and guarded so as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and the officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined. Packets containing liquids, glass, greasy substances, colouring powders, and live bees can be sent by sample post from the United Kingdom to countries in the Postal Union. Deleterious liquids or substances and explosives are absolutely prohibited.

A packet or samples sent to any British Colony or Possession or non-Union country, must not exceed  $24 \times 12 \times 12$  in., but to any foreign place comprised in the Postal Union a packet must not exceed  $12 \times 8 \times 4$  in., unless it be in the form of a roll, in which case the limit of size is  $12 \times 6$  in.

The limit of weight for packets of samples for British Colonies or Possessions, or for non-Union countries, is 5 lb., but for foreign countries in the Postal Union the limit is 12 oz.

INLAND PARCEL POST.

In order that a packet may go by Parcel Post, it must be tendered for transmission as a parcel, and should bear the words 'Parcel Post' clearly written in the left-hand top corner. It is also desirable that a parcel should bear the name and address of the sender on the cover, but not in such a position as to be mistaken for the address of the parcel. The parcel should not be left until the weight, size, and postage have been tested by the officer who accepts it.

The size allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel is—Greatest length, . . . . . 3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined, . . . . . 6 ft. 0 in.

For example:—A parcel measuring 3 ft. 6 in. in its longest dimension, may measure as much as 2 ft. 6 in. in girth, or, if shorter, may be thicker.

The rates of postage are—
Not exceeding 1 lb. in weight, . . . . . 3d.
Exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 2 lbs., . . . . . 4d.
" 2 lbs. " " 3 " . . . . . 5d.
" 3 " " " 5 " . . . . . 6d.
" 5 " " " 7 " . . . . . 7d.
" 7 " " " 8 " . . . . . 8d.
" 8 " " " 9 " . . . . . 9d.
" 9 " " " 10 " . . . . . 10d.
" 10 " " " 11 " . . . . . 11d.
No parcel may exceed 11 lbs. in weight.

The postage must be paid in advance, by means of postage stamps, which should be affixed by the sender. In posting a parcel it should be handed over the counter, and care taken to let the officer who accepts it know that it is intended for transmission by Parcel Post. In no case should the parcel be posted in a letter-box.

In order to secure compensation for an unregistered parcel, a certificate of posting should be obtained by the sender. (As to certificates for registered parcels, see under registration and compensation, p. 1192.)

The prohibitions against the sending by post of anything indecent, or obscene print, painting, or photograph, or explosive, any noxious or deleterious substance, or any sharp instrument not properly protected, or of any living creature, except bees, on condition that they are sent in suitable cases, and so packed as to avoid all risk of injury to officers of the Post Office or to other packets.

China, crockery, eggs, fruit, fish, meat, etc., which may not be sent by Letter Post, may be sent by Parcel Post, if packed with special care. Liquids or semi-liquids, such as jellies, pickles, paint, varnish, etc., must be put into bottles or cases securely stoppered. Any parcel containing eggs, or fragile, or perishable contents, should be conspicuously marked 'Eggs,' or 'Fragile—with care,' or 'Perishable.'

Parcels for post will be collected from firms or private persons when the number to be called for amounts to 10 a day or 50 per week.

If a packet bearing the words 'Parcel Post' is not posted in accordance with the regulations, it is treated as a letter or book packet, if it is fully prepaid at the rate proper to either, and is otherwise in accordance with the letter post regulations; but if not fully prepaid at the letter post rate, it will be treated as a parcel, and charged on delivery with a fine of 1d., together with the deficient postage, if any, at the Parcel rate.

A Customs declaration must be made in the case of parcels for the Channel Islands.

To offices where letters may be addressed 'to be called for,' parcels may also be so addressed. Such parcels are kept for three weeks, at the end of which period, if not called for, they are returned to the sender.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PARCEL POST.

For countries, dimensions, and weight, see p. 1212.

The rules as to prepayment, method of address, and posting are the same as with inland parcels.

Customs Declaration and Duties.—Parcels are liable to Customs regulations and duties, and the sender of a parcel is required to make a Customs declaration furnishing—upon a special form provided for the purpose—an accurate statement of the contents and value and other particulars. The declaration form should, if possible, be filled up in both English and French. Customs duties will be collected on delivery. In addition to Customs duties, a charge of 6d. per parcel for stamp duty, clearance, etc., is levied on all dutiable parcels entering Cape Colony, Natal, the British Central African Protectorate, and the Transvaal. And for Rhodesia the charge is from 6d. to 1s. according to value, and 8d. (2d. on parcels containing non-dutiable articles) in the Orange River Colony. In Honduras and Salvador the fee is 1 centavo for each 4 oz., with a minimum of 5 centavos. On parcels for British East Africa, including Uganda, insurance is confined to parcels for Entebbe, Jinja, Kampala, Kisumu, Nairobi, Nakuru, Mombasa, and Lamu.

Parcels for the Argentine Republic are subject to a fiscal charge under the National Stamp Act.

Parcels for the Lower Congo are liable to a charge of 1 franc, and parcels for the Upper Congo to a charge of 10 francs, on delivery.

Parcels for Cape of Good Hope, Natal, Orange River Colony, Rhodesia, North and South, Transvaal, Bechuanaland, and uninsured parcels for Egypt and Zanzibar, may not exceed £50 in value.

Delivery of Parcels.—In many Colonies and foreign countries parcels are not, like letters, delivered at the residences of the addressees. Notice of the arrival of a parcel is sent to the addressee, who must then claim the parcel at the Post Office, Railway Station, or Custom House where it is lying.

In Belgium, France, and Spain parcels are delivered by the Railway Companies, and not by the Post Office; and parcels intended to be called for should not be addressed to a Poste Restante in those countries, but to a Railway Station (en gare).

Insurance of Colonial Parcels.—Parcels to or from certain British Colonies and Possessions are accepted for insurance. The names of the places may be learned at any Post Office.

The fee for insurance is 4d. for £12, up to a limit of 5s. 10d. for £400; and for the United States 6d. for £12 up to a limit of 5s. for £120. No compensation, either for loss or damage, will be given in respect of any article which may not be sent by the Inland Parcel Post, or anything which, though admissible by the Inland Post is inadmissible under the Colonial Parcel Post. Further, no compensation will be given in respect of a parcel in which money is enclosed.

Re-direction and Return of Parcels.—Parcels arriving in this country and re-directed from one address to another in the United Kingdom will be treated and surcharged under the regulations which govern the treatment and surcharge of re-directed parcels by the Inland Parcel Post.

If a parcel cannot be delivered as addressed, or is refused, the sender, if his address be given on the parcel or on the forms which accompany the parcel, is communicated with by the Post Office as to the manner in which the parcel shall be disposed of.

If returned or re-directed from one country to another, the parcel will be charged a full rate of postage.

Parcels re-directed to this country from Spain, are, in addition to the postage, charged the Customs duty levied in Spain, unless re-directed within four months from the date of posting; and the whole charge must be paid by the addressee or person authorising the re-direction. In Portugal the import duty is cancelled, but export duty and stamp duty are leviable, and in Turkey a fee is charged for Customs clearance.

A parcel should be properly packed and sealed by the sender, so that it cannot be opened without breaking the seal.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF LETTERS AND PARCELS.

The following services are provided by the Post Office:—

1. Express throughout (Local Service).

The charge is 3d. for every mile or part of a mile from the Office of delivery to the address. On packets weighing more than 1 lb. a weight fee of 3d. is charged, together with a further fixed charge of 1d. for each article beyond one. If the sender desires, a cab or other special conveyance may be used throughout, the actual fare or cost of the conveyance must be paid in addition to the mileage fee. The weight fee is not charged in such a case.

All charges must be prepaid in postage stamps, to be affixed to a form provided by the Post Office, and should be handed in over the counter, or to an officer authorised to receive it. In no case may it be placed in a letter box.

A reply is charged for at the same rates, unless it be taken to an address on the messenger's homeward route or within half a mile of his office, in which case only half the mileage fee is charged.

2. Express delivery after transmission by ordinary mail.

Letters, parcels, etc., posted in the ordinary way can, when the sender so desires, be delivered by express messenger from the Head Office or office of destination immediately on their arrival. The fee is, as in the previous case, 3d. per mile or part of a mile in addition to the ordinary postage. The words 'Express Delivery' must be boldly and legibly written on the cover, and in the case of a letter the cover must be marked with a broad perpendicular line from top to bottom both on front and back.

Letters may be delivered by special messenger in London on Sunday mornings, provided that each letter is prepaid with an express fee at the rate of 3d. a mile or part of a mile, calculated from the General Post Office, and that the cover is marked with the words 'Express Delivery on Sunday,' in addition to a perpendicular line.

3. Express delivery at request of addressee.

The addressees of letters and parcels not marked for Express Delivery may have them delivered by special messenger in advance of the ordinary delivery by postman, on making application in proper time on a form provided for the purpose and prepaying the usual express fee of 3d. per mile on the first packet and a further fixed charge of 1d. for every additional ten or less number of packets.

Any subscriber to a Telephone Exchange may telephone messages to any Post Office which can be reached through the local Exchange system, or by means of the Post Office trunk wires, in order that the messages may be written down and forwarded as telegrams, or express letters or ordinary letters. Public telephones, call offices, or private telephones to Post Offices, may also be used in this way, he can also in this way summon a messenger for the express delivery of letters or parcels.

Local Service.—At the General Post Office, and at the undermentioned Branch and Sub-Offices, letters, parcels, etc., are accepted for immediate delivery by Express Messenger in any part of Edinburgh and Leith or suburbs, viz.:—

Bonnington (1 Pitt Street, Leith).
Boroughmuirhead (1 Merchiston Place).
Commercial St., Custom House Bldgs. (Leith).
Craigmillar.
George Street (38-40 Frederick Street).
Goldenacre (1 Montagu Terrace).
Gorgie (Village of).
Granton Harbour (Hotel Buildings).
Greenend.
Hope Street, 7.
Jock's Lodge (37 Parsonsgreen Terrace).
Leith (Constitution Street).
Leith Walk, 249.
Leven Street, 44.
Marchmont Road, 123.
Murrayfield (Coltbridge Avenue).
Newhaven (8 Maitland Street).
Newington (41 South Clerk Street).
Plewlands (14 Comiston Road).
Portobello (Windsor Place).
Raeburn Place, 39.
Tynecastle (3 Ardmillan Terrace).

From the General Post Office, Edinburgh, delivery is effected at all hours day and night, except between 11.30 p.m. on Saturdays and midnight on Sundays. From 10 p.m. till 7.0 a.m. on week days letters should be handed in at the North Bridge entrance.

Letters, etc., for Express Delivery from the General Post Office, may also be handed in at any of the other Local Offices, but the delivery will be less expeditious in these cases, inasmuch as the articles have first to be conveyed by ordinary collection to the G.P.O., from which they are expressed to destination. Thus an express letter or parcel handed in at Fountain-bridge Post Office before 9.50 a.m. will reach the G.P.O. at 10.30 a.m., and delivery by Express Messenger will immediately follow.

The Express Service may also be used for obtaining letters in advance of the ordinary deliveries by Postmen.

Single Letters conveyed by Railway.—Railway letters not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, for transmission by train or steamship, may be handed in to any post office from which express delivery is made, for immediate conveyance to the railway stations, at the above rates.

CONVEYANCE OF SINGLE POST LETTER BY RAILWAY.

Certain Railway Companies have entered into agreement with the Postmaster-General to accept and convey by the next available train or steam-boat single inland post letters, not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, either to be called for at the station of address or to be transferred there to the nearest post office letter box for delivery by postman. The letter must be taken to the parcel booking office, and when that office is shut to the passenger booking office. The charge for such a letter is 3d.—postage stamp 1d., and 2d in cash to the Railway Company.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

ADDRESSES AND PETITIONS TO THE KING AND PARLIAMENT.

Petitions and addresses to the King, forwarded direct or through a member of either House of Parliament, are exempt from postage. Petitions to members of either House so addressed are also exempt, provided they do not exceed 2 lbs. in weight, and, sent without covers, or in covers open at the ends.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

Printed votes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent in open covers, having the words 'Parliamentary Proceedings' written or printed thereon, are subject to no limits of size and weight, and are liable only to a rate of 3d. for every 2 oz., whether prepaid or not.

PARLIAMENTARY AND MUNICIPAL REGISTRATION NOTICES, JURY SUMMONSES.

Particulars as to the conditions under which these documents may be served by post may be obtained from the Secretary, General Post Office, or from the Postmaster at any Head Post Office.

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, SOLDIERS AND SEAMEN IN H.M. SERVICE.

Letters, etc., for the officers and crew of H.M. Ships are, as a rule, forwarded in accordance with lists of addresses furnished from time to time by the Admiralty, but any superscribed 'to be sent as addressed' will be so forwarded.

The postage payable on letters addressed to H.M. ships abroad is 1d. per oz., and the same postage is payable in British stamps on letters sent in the bags made up on board H.M. ships.

Letters, etc., for commissioned officers in the army or navy are liable to the same rates of postage as those for the general public.

Non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters, schoolmistresses, private soldiers, seamen, writers in H.M. Navy, whether serving on sea or land, at home or abroad, the Cape Mounted Rifles, and enrolled pensioners in Canada, can send and receive prepaid letters, not exceeding half an ounce, for a postage of 1d.

The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction, and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship or regiment, corps or detachment, to which the soldier or seaman belongs, the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. The foregoing particulars must be given in one of the following forms:—

From A. B., Sergeant, etc., — Regt., —
(Here the direction of the letter to be inserted.)
C. D., Colonel (or other Commanding Officer),
— Regt., —

To A. B.,
Private (or Sergeant, Corporal, etc.) — Regt. —
(Here the direction to be finished.)

If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom, unpaid or insufficiently prepaid, or if the class or description of the soldier or seaman be not given, it will be returned to the writer for payment of the postage.

FOR PASSENGERS ON BOARD MAIL PACKETS.

Special arrangements are made for the delivery of letters addressed to passengers on board the Union Castle Company's packets for the Cape, etc., sailing from Southampton, the packets for the United States calling at Queenstown, the Canadian packets sailing from Liverpool, the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's packets for Brazil, etc., calling at Lisbon, the Peninsular and Oriental packets from Brindisi with mails for Egypt, connecting at Port Said with the packet for India, Australia, China, etc., and the Orient packets from Taranto with mails for Australia,—such letters may be posted in any part of the United Kingdom up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received; but they must be registered (but cannot be accepted for insurance) and fully prepaid, and addressed to the 'care of the commander of the packet.'

The letter should be addressed thus—Mr. — on board the mail packet — for — at — care of the commander of the packet.

LETTERS BY PRIVATE SHIPS.

Letters intended to be sent by private ship must be addressed 'By Private Ship'; and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added. The postage of a letter by a private ship is the same as by mail packet.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, ETC.

MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, newspapers, and book packets can only be prepaid by means of postage stamps, except at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, where inland letters, post cards, book packets, and parcels may, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., be prepaid in money, provided the amount be not less than £1, and that the letters and halfpenny packets be tied in separate bundles of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN).

Letters, etc., must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

The fee chargeable for registration to places abroad is 2d.; and to some foreign countries a letter can be registered only to the port of arrival, it being left in those cases to the postal authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the registration or not as they may think proper. Coin, jewellery, or precious articles may not be sent through the post to certain countries of the Postal Union; no letters or packets addressed to those countries and containing such articles can be accepted for registration.

No letter or postal packet addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered, unless addressed to the care of a person or firm. Every article presented for registration should be enclosed in a strong cover securely fastened.

Every letter, etc., to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If an article marked 'registered' be dropped into the letter-box, directed to any place in the United Kingdom, it will be liable to a registration fee of 4d. (less any amount prepaid for registration), instead of the ordinary fee, and if posted containing coin, watches, or jewellery without being registered, will be treated in like manner.

The sender of an inland registered letter or packet may obtain an acknowledgment of its due delivery by paying at the time of posting, or subsequently, an additional fee of 2d., and filling up the necessary form, and should a like acknowledgment be desired for a letter addressed to a foreign country or British colony in the Postal Union, a fee of 2½d. is required.

Registered letters require to be posted at General Post Office thirty minutes, and at the sub-offices fifteen minutes before the closing of the box for ordinary letters; but upon payment of a late fee of 4d. they may be registered at General Post Office until the closing of the letter-box for ordinary letters for each dispatch.

The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure, as it can be traced through its whole course; and thus the loss of a registered packet is a very rare occurrence. Nevertheless, large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, as the machinery of the department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered, valuable articles are exposed to risk.

INLAND REGISTRATION AND COMPENSATION.

The ordinary registration fee for each inland letter, parcel, or other postal packet is 2d.

The Postmaster-General will (not in consequence of any legal liability, but voluntarily, and as an act of grace), subject to the rules for the time being, give compensation up to a maximum limit of £5 for the loss and damage of Inland Registered Packets upon which this fee has been paid, in addition to the postage. Subject to the same rules he will grant compensation beyond £5, and up to a limit of £400, upon payment of a fee in addition to the postage and the ordinary registration fee. These fees (which in each case include the ordinary registration fee of 2d.), and the respective limits of compensation, are as follows:—3d. on £20, 4d. on £40, and so on at the rate of 1d. for every additional £20, up to a limit of 1s. 10d. for £400.

RULES.

Posting and Packing.

The postal packet must be posted in accordance with the rules for the time being, and a certificate of posting, bearing thereon an acknowledgment that the fee for registration and compensation has been paid, must be obtained.

The contents of the postal packet must be packed and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper, or cover, and if it be desired to secure compensation for damage to a postal packet (other than a parcel), such postal packet must bear the words 'Fragile, with Care,' on the face of the cover above the address.

The packet must be marked with the word 'Registered,' and, when the fee exceeds 2d., with the amount of the fee proper to the value up to which the sender desires to secure compensation, thus:—

Registered, 3d.; Registered, 4d.; and so on.

The registered Parcel Post will be available for watches and jewellery. Money may also be sent in a registered parcel, but no compensation will be given in respect of the loss or damage of such parcel whether registered or unregistered.

General Conditions.

No compensation either for loss or damage will be given in respect of a postal packet containing anything not legally transmissible by post; or a packet not posted in the manner prescribed; or a packet (other than a letter) containing any money; or a letter containing any money, unless it be enclosed in a registered letter envelope provided by the Postmaster-General.

Compensation given in respect of the loss or damage of coin shall not in the case of any letter exceed the sum of £5, and must be enclosed in one of the Registered Letter envelopes sold by the Post Office, and the packet is tendered for transmission by Registered Letter Post.

No compensation will be given in respect of damage to a postal packet containing eggs, soft fruit, or any liquid or semi-liquid; or containing any article of an exceptionally fragile character, or any other article which from its nature cannot with reasonable safety be sent by post; or containing a perishable article where the damage arises from natural decay, and the postal packet is delivered without undue delay; or (other than a parcel) which is not marked 'Fragile, with Care.'

Where a postal packet (other than a parcel) is marked 'Fragile, with Care,' may be slightly delayed in transit, as it may be diverted from the quickest to some other route to ensure greater safety.

In every case it must appear that the loss or damage did not arise wholly or in part by the fault of the sender, and that it occurred while the postal packet was in the post.

The compensation given will in no case exceed the value of the article lost or the damage sustained. The right is reserved of reinstating the contents of a packet instead of giving pecuniary compensation.

Compensation for damage to the contents of a registered packet will be strictly in accordance with the fee paid and the amount of damage done, no matter what the original total value of the contents may have been.

Where compensation is given for the loss of a postal packet, or of any article contained in a postal packet, the Postmaster-General will reserve the right to retain and dispose as he thinks fit of the postal packet or of the missing article, in case it should subsequently come into his hands.

In no case will the Postmaster-General give compensation for injury or damage consequential upon—i.e. indirectly arising from the loss, damage, or delay, non-delivery, or mis-delivery of anything sent by post.

Without prejudice to any of the preceding rules, the Postmaster-General will, if he thinks fit, refuse to give compensation for loss or damage on any ground on which a common carrier might in like case claim exemption from legal liability.

Claims for Compensation.

Every application for compensation should be made within seven days after the date on which the postal packet was posted, and the certificate of posting must be produced when required.

Where the application relates to the damage of the packet, or to the damage or loss of any article contained therein, the packet should be retained for inspection as nearly as possible in the state in which it was delivered. When the complaint is that the contents have been abstracted, the envelope must accompany the application.

The compensation payable in respect of a registered parcel will be in substitution for and not in addition to any compensation which would have been payable in case the parcel had not been registered.

This scheme of registration and compensation does not apply to Foreign and Colonial registered postal packets.

The several Postal Administrations of the countries belonging to the Postal Union undertake to pay an indemnity of fifty francs in the event of its being proved to their satisfaction that a registered letter itself has been lost whilst in their custody, but no question of compensation is entertained by them for, or in respect of, the loss of the enclosure of any such letter.

No town postman is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but rural postmen can do so on their walks.

Definition of Terms.

The term 'postal packet' means and includes any letter packet, post card, halfpenny packet, book, newspaper, parcel, or other article transmissible by the Post in accordance with the regulations in force for the time being. The term 'money' means and includes coin and paper money. The term 'coin' means and includes coin of all kinds whether or not current in the United Kingdom or elsewhere. The term 'paper money' means and includes notes of the Bank of England and Ireland or of any bank of issue in the United Kingdom, and notes current in any Foreign State or British Possession; money orders and postal orders; unobliterated postage or revenue stamps; exchequer bills, bank post bills, bills of exchange, promissory notes, cheques, credit-notes which entitle the holder to money or goods, and all orders and authorities for the payment of money, whether negotiable or not; bonds, coupons, and securities for money, whether negotiable or not. The term 'watch' means a small timepiece intended to be carried in the pocket or on the person. The term does not include the works of a watch if of no intrinsic value apart from the workmanship. Watch cases of gold or silver are included within the definition of jewellery. The term 'jewellery' means and includes gold or silver in a manufactured or unmanufactured state (not electro or other plated goods), watches and jewels, diamonds and precious stones, and any article of a like nature, which, apart from the workmanship, has an intrinsic or marketable value. The term 'United Kingdom' includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

Inland Parcels.—For a parcel which is not registered the Postmaster-General will accept liability up to £2, without payment of any fee, provided that the parcel is posted in the manner prescribed for the posting of parcels by the regulations for the time being, and a certificate of posting is obtained from the officer receiving the parcel, and produced when required. The certificate must be filled up by the sender and handed to the officer, who will sign and return it to him. The parcel must be packed and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper, or cover.

No compensation either for loss or damage will be given in respect of a parcel containing anything which may not be sent according to the regulations for the time being, or if containing money, nor of a parcel containing a watch or jewellery, unless registered.

No compensation will be given in respect of a parcel containing eggs, soft fruit, or any article which from its nature cannot with reasonable safety be sent by post.

Parcels for Abroad.—Particulars as to compensation for loss or damage between certain British Colonies, dependencies, and foreign countries can be learned at any Post Office. The rate for insurance, including registration, between the United Kingdom and certain British Colonies and dependencies is 4d. for £12 up to 5s. 10d. for £400. And for the United States, 6d. for £12 up to 5s. for £120.

RE-DIRECTION.

Letters, halfpenny packets, post cards, and newspapers, are not liable to additional postage for re-direction, whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided that the letters are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened, but if re-posted later than the day after delivery are charged at the prepaid rate. Any which appear to have been opened will be charged as unpaid letters or packets.

Whenever it may be thought necessary, a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter at the second address.

Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction. But re-directed parcels are not subjected to additional postage if the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office, and that the re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction allowed for other classes of correspondence.

A registered letter or packet, when re-directed, should be taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter. No additional registration fee will be charged if the correspondence is presented for re-registration not later than one day after delivery; but if it is presented after that time it will be treated as freshly posted, and a fresh registration fee will be payable.

Notices of removal and applications for letters, etc., to be re-directed must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed; printed forms of notice can be obtained at the local office and the General Post Office, or from the postman. A separate notice must be filled up for parcels and telegrams. Persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention.

The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters, etc., for a person temporarily leaving his home, unless the house be left uninhabited, or of letters, etc., addressed to clubs, hotels, boarding-houses, or lodgings.

Foreign and Colonial.—The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, etc., which, though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign country or colony and re-directed to the United Kingdom. But a fully paid letter or packet coming here from abroad and re-directed would not be chargeable for re-direction unless the postage from the place of origin to the final destination were higher than the postage from the place of origin to this country. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, are subject to the ordinary charge of double the deficient postage on delivery. In the case of registered letters the rule given above for inland letters applies, in no case should it be dropped into a letter box.

Letters for commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers, private soldiers, or seamen in the army or navy, on actual service, are exempt from any charge for re-direction, and also to the usual regulations as to time of re-posting. Letters, etc., returned to the senders that they may rectify or complete the address, are not, when re-posted, treated as re-directed, but as liable to fresh postage.

No person living within the town free delivery, unless he rent a private box, can obtain his letters at the General Post Office.

Private Boxes and Bags.—The fee for a private box is £3, 3s. per annum; and if for a private bag, £1, 1s. additional; and if for parcels, an additional fee; for delivery from one address to another (removal excepted), 21s.; and for private delivery of registered letters only, a fee of 10s. 6d. a year.

The same regulation applies also to the supply of Fee Stamps of every kind.

Embossed or impressed postage stamps cut out of envelopes, post cards, letter cards, newspaper wrappers, or telegram forms may be used as adhesive stamps in payment of postage, provided they are not imperfect, mutilated, or defaced in any way. Embossed or impressed Inland Revenue stamps cannot be used in payment of postage, and stamps indicating the payment of a registration fee may only be used for registered correspondence.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of postage stamps which have been cut, torn, or otherwise rendered imperfect.

Stamps bought from the public—

Persons wishing to sell postage stamps must fill up a form, obtainable at any post office, stating the value of the stamps, and the name, address, and occupation of the vendor. The form and stamps should then be handed in at any Money Order Office and an acknowledgment obtained. An order for the face value of the stamps, less 5 per cent. commission, will be sent by post from the chief office of account, London, Dublin, or Edinburgh. No smaller amount than £1 worth will be purchased from one person.

Ordinary Postage and Revenue Stamps available for certain documents.—Ordinary adhesive Postage and Revenue Stamps may, as a rule, be used for the purpose of denoting Stamp Duties up to a limit of 2s. 6d., where adhesive stamps are admissible for that purpose.

One or more Postage and Revenue Stamps may be used to make up the duty.

Stamping of documents, &c.—On the prepayment of the proper duty, any executed or unexecuted documents or printed forms can be left at all Money Order Offices in England and Wales, and at certain offices in Scotland and Ireland, to be forwarded for stamping, without charge for transmission, provided that the value of the stamp on any document or form does not exceed the limit which may be in force at the Money Order Office concerned. Executed documents can, as a rule, be reclaimed the second day after being left.

ARTICLES NOT ALLOWED TO BE SENT BY POST.

No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, card, or other article, or any article having thereon any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, nor can any explosive, dangerous, or noxious substance, any living creature, except bees, or anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag or the person of any officer of the Post Office. The sender of any such packet is liable to prosecution.

The transmission by letter post of coin, gold, silver, precious stones, jewellery, etc., is prohibited in most countries; for further particulars see P.O. Guide. Uncut diamonds may, however, be sent by post to Canada and America.

In Cape Colony, Natal, and New Zealand—jewellery and precious articles, if dutiable, are liable to detention until the duty is paid.

In Spain the transmission by letter post of all dutiable articles is prohibited, and such articles sent contrary to this prohibition are liable to a fine of from five to ten times the duty.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a post office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter, parcel, or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorised to demand it; and when money is paid at a post office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded. This rule does not apply to parcels.

If a letter be forwarded under cover to any postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the letter, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words 'posted at —, under cover, to the Postmaster of —.'

To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house door.

Every address should be legible and complete, and every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found.

Letters which cannot be delivered, bearing the full name and address of the sender, printed or written upon the outside, is returned direct and unopened. Others are sent to the Returned Letter Office, and returned, if possible, to the sender, unless addressed, 'to be called for,' when they are retained one month, and if addressed to a ship, two months before being returned.

MONEY ORDERS.

Money Orders are issued and paid at General Post Office, from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.; at Branch and Sub Offices, 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.

When applying for Money Orders, the public should use the printed Requisition Form, which is supplied gratuitously at all Money Order Offices, and should state thereon as fully as possible the name, title, or designation, as the case may be, of the payee.

The commission on Inland Money Orders is:—

For sums not exceeding £1	2d.
Above £1	3d.
„ 3	10
„ 30	40
	10d.

No single Money Order can be issued for a sum exceeding £40.

No Order may contain a fractional part of a 1d.

An ordinary Money Order when issued is handed by the postmaster to the remitter to be transmitted by him to the payee, and a separate advice is sent from the Issuing Office to the Paying Office, containing information as to the amount and as to the name of the payee and of the remitter. Unless the order be presented through a bank, the person presenting it for payment must furnish the remitter's name for comparison with the advice.

If, when an Order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank), it is properly receipted, and the name of the remitter, as furnished by the applicant, is in agreement with the advice, it will be paid, unless the Postmaster has good reason for believing that the applicant is neither the payee nor his agent.

The remitter of an Order payable in the United Kingdom may request to be informed when the Order has been paid, in such case he must apply at the office of issue, either at the time of issue of the Order, or subsequently, and pay a fee of 2d. The issuing postmaster will then arrange for an advice of payment to be sent to the remitter.

In all cases the remitter's name must be given, and it is desirable that his address should also be given.

The remitter of an order to be paid in the United Kingdom may request at the time of issue that the order be crossed like a cheque, thus, ‘_____ & Co.,’ in order that it may be paid only through a bank. In the case of crossed orders the remitter may, at his pleasure, give or withhold the payee's name or description.

The holder of an inland Money Order may direct, by crossing it, that it be paid through a bank, even although not originally intended.

If the remitter of a Money Order issued and payable in the United Kingdom is desirous of delaying payment for any period not exceeding ten days, he must, at the time of the issue of the order, fill up and sign the request printed at the foot of the Money Order, and inform the postmaster, in order that a note may be made on the order and advice for the information of the office of payment.

If, when an order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank), it is properly signed, and the party presenting it can give the name of the remitter, it will be paid, unless the postmaster has good reason for believing that the applicant is neither the rightful claimant, nor deputed by the payee. When an order is presented through a bank, crossed with the name of the bank by some person known to be in the employment of the bank, the usual formalities on presentation are dispensed with.

Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

At the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order, if still unpaid becomes legally void; nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a deduction of 6d., is entertained.

After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the postmaster-general is not liable to any further claim, nor is he liable to pay compensation for loss or injury arising out of delay in payment of a Money Order, or out of any other irregularity in connection with an order.

Immediate payment of a Money Order on presentation is not guaranteed; and delay is possible, especially in the case of orders for large amounts drawn on small offices.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money Order in transmission through the post, a duplicate is granted free of charge on a written application giving particulars to the Controller of the Money Order Office in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be, where the original order was issued. Should an order be lost by the remitter or payee, an additional commission of 6d. (which should be forwarded in postage stamps with the application for a duplicate order) will be charged. If it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, a notice, in which 4d. commission in postage stamps must be enclosed, must be sent to the office where the order is payable. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order be required, application, accompanied by a 1d. postage stamp, must be made by the remitter to the postmaster of the office at which the order was issued. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application enclosing the order must be made to the postmaster at whose office the order is payable, who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission. Proper printed forms for making applications in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the payment of a fresh commission has been rendered necessary by the fault of an officer of the Post Office, the charge will be remitted.

If payment of an order be refused in consequence of the replies to the questions respecting the remitter, or the signature on the order, not corresponding with the entries in the advice, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing postmaster.

Money Orders for amounts not exceeding £40 are issued, free of charge, in favour of ‘The Commissioners of Inland Revenue,’ when required for the remittance of Corporation Duty, Income Tax, Inhabited House Duty, Land Tax, Land Value Duties, Increment Value Duty, Reversion Duty, Undeveloped Land Duty, Mineral Rights’ Duty, or Excise Duties, or Legacy, Succession, and Death Duties. The official notice to pay must, in each case, be presented for inspection when the order is applied for.

Telegraph Money Orders (Inland).

Money may be transmitted by Telegraph Money Order between all Offices authorised to transact Telegraph and Money Order business, with the exception that at those Offices which forward but do not deliver Telegrams, Telegraph Money Orders can be issued but not paid.

The hours for the issue and payment of Telegraph Money Orders is 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

No single Telegraph Money Order can be issued for a greater amount than £40.

The charges for Inland Telegraph Money Orders are as follows:—

1. A Money Order poundage at the ordinary rate for Inland Money Orders.
2. A charge for the official telegram of advice to the office of payment at the ordinary rate for inland telegrams, the minimum being 6d.
3. A supplementary fee of 2d. for each Order.

The telegraph charges only cover the cost of transmitting the official telegram of advice to the postmaster of the office of payment, and its repetition. Any telegraphic communication which the remitter may wish to despatch to the payee with regard to the order must be paid for at the ordinary inland rate.

In order to avoid any misunderstanding, the remitter when filling up the printed form of requisition, should state clearly whether the order is to be called for at the Post Office or delivered at the payee's address.

If the order is to be kept at the paying office till called for, he should write the name of the paying office in the space provided and give the payee's address as ‘Post Office.’ He should inform the payee of the despatch of the order and the name of the Post Office at which he must apply for it, unless this is already known to the payee.

If the order is to be delivered at the payee's address, the remitter must furnish on the form of requisition a sufficient address. The person applying for payment must in all cases furnish the name of the remitter, and if the order is addressed 'to be called for' at the Post Office, he must also produce evidence of his identity.

Should repayment of a Telegraph Money Order be required, the remitter must make application to the Controller, Money Order Office, G.P.O., London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, as the case may be, enclosing the receipt. A new order will then be issued, less the ordinary commission, payable at any Money Order Office named for the purpose.

In other respects, Telegraph Money Orders are subject to the regulations which govern the transmission of ordinary Money Orders.

Telegraph Money Orders (Foreign).

Telegraph Money Orders are now exchanged with Algeria, Austria, Azores, Belgium, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Crete, Denmark, Egypt (including the Soudan), Færoe Islands, France, Germany, Holland, Hungary, Iceland, Italy, Luxemburg (Grand Duchy), Madeira, Monaco, Netherlands, Newfoundland (certain places), Norway, Portugal, Roumania, Sweden, Switzerland.

The charges for Orders issued in the United Kingdom are as follows:—

A Money Order commission at the ordinary rate for Foreign Money Orders.

A charge for the Telegram of Advice at the ordinary rate for telegrams to the country of payment.

A supplementary fee of 6d. for each Order.

The remitter is allowed, on paying for the additional words required, to add to the Official Telegram of Advice any short communication which he may wish to send to the payee.

The remitter may also obtain an advice of payment, on paying a fee of 2½d.

The general regulations relating to Foreign Orders and Inland Telegraph Orders apply, so far as they are applicable, to Telegraph Orders exchanged with foreign countries.

Canada and the United States.

Under an arrangement with the Western Union Telegraph Co., Telegraph Money Orders may be sent from any Telegraph Money Order Office in the United Kingdom to any place in Canada or the United States.

Money Orders (Foreign and Colonial Service).

When applying for Money Orders payable in places abroad, the public should fill up the special Requisition Forms supplied for the purpose, and should be careful to comply with the directions given thereon.

The limit of amount for a single Order is for some countries £10, for others £20, and for others again £40.

	s.	d.
For sums not exceeding £1 . . . .	0	3
" " " 2 . . . .	0	6

and so on, up to a limit of £40 . . . .	5	3

The issuing postmaster will hand to the remitter, either—

1. A Money Order to be forwarded by post to the payee for presentation at the office of payment; or,

2. A certificate of issue, in which case payment will be made by means of an Order which will be issued by the postal administration abroad.

The list of countries given below shows which system applies to each country.

As the advices of Orders drawn on places abroad have to be examined in the Money Order Department, London, before the particulars are advised to the paying country, such Orders should be taken out a day (or, in remote places, two days) before the dates fixed for the despatch of the mails.

The currency in which payment is made, the rate of conversion from sterling, when necessary, and the poundage, if any, deducted in cases where payment in the country of destination is arranged through the medium of another country. Particulars of which can be seen in any Post Office.

Payment is subject to the regulations of the country of payment. In foreign countries the payee may be, and generally is, required to produce documentary evidence of his identity before payment is made.

Orders issued in the United Kingdom for payment in places abroad are valid for twelve months after the month of issue, except Orders payable in the Congo Free State, which are valid for eight months only; in Austria, with its agencies, Hungary, the Dutch West Indies, and Uruguay, which are valid for six months; in the Argentine Republic and Brazil, for five months.

The payees of Orders issued in the various British possessions (excepting India, Aden, Ceylon, and the Nyasaland Protectorate), in France, Hawaii, Porto Rico, the United States, and by the British Post Offices in Beyrout, Constantinople, Panama, Salonica, Smyrna, and Tangier, should receive the Orders direct from the remitters.

The advices of these Orders have to be examined in the Money Order Department, London, and some little delay in payment may thus occur.

In all other cases the payee will receive Orders issued by the Money Order Department, London, from the particulars supplied by the country of origin.

Tables of conversion showing the equivalents in British money of the amounts of Orders issued in places abroad can be learned at any Post Office.

Transfer of Payment.—Postmasters in this country have power to transfer to other Offices in the United Kingdom payment of Foreign and Colonial Money Orders originally drawn on their own Offices. Forms of application for transfer of payment are obtainable at all Money Order Offices.

Stoppage of Payment.—Application for the stoppage of payment of an Order issued abroad, for payment in the United Kingdom, should be made direct to the Post Office where the Order is payable, and should be accompanied by a fee of 4d. in postage stamps.

Applications for duplicates of Money Orders payable in the United Kingdom should be made to the Controller of the Money Order Department, London, and should be accompanied by a fee of 6d. in postage stamps.

With the exceptions of France and Algeria, and the British Post Offices in Beyrout, Constantinople, and Smyrna, Salonica, Tangier, and Panama, duplicates of Money Orders payable in places abroad are issued by the Chief Office of the country of payment on application by the payee.

In the exceptional cases duplicate orders are issued in London.

Those marked thus * in the following list denote that the certificates of issue should be retained by the remitters. The payees will receive payment on Orders issued by the postal administrations abroad.

In the case of all other countries an Order will be handed to the remitter to be transmitted by him to the payee.

(T) indicates that Telegraph Money Orders are exchanged with these countries.

POSTAL ORDERS.

Postal Orders are issued and paid at most post offices in the United Kingdom.

The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the poundage payable in respect of each order:—

6d. up to	2s. 6d.	3d. each.
3s.	15s.	1d. each.
15s. 6d.	21s.	1½d. each.

Broken amounts may be made up by affixing postage stamps not exceeding 5d. to the face of the order.

The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and is recommended to fill in the name of the office of payment as a precaution in case the order should be lost or stolen. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

Every person obtaining a Postal Order should tear off and retain the counterfoil. Its production will facilitate inquiry if the order should be lost.

If a Postal Order be crossed, payment will only be made through a banker, and if the name of a banker is added, payment will only be made through that banker.

A Postal Order presented by or through a banker for payment will not (in the absence of an express arrangement between such banker and the Postmaster-General to the contrary) be paid until after such order has been examined at the Chief Office in London.

After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster-General will not be liable for any further claim.

If any erasure or alteration be made, or if the order is cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

After the expiration of three months from the last day of the month of issue, a Postal Order will be payable only on payment of a commission equal to the original poundage; and the commission thus paid must be affixed in postage stamps on the back of the order. Postal Orders presented for payment more than six months after the month of issue are not paid until reference has been made to the Chief Office in London.

Postal Order business is transacted during the hours at which postage stamps can be purchased.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices, and are open for bank business during the same hours as for money orders.

Deposits of one shilling, or of any number of shillings, may be made, but no one may deposit more than £50 in one year ending 31st December, and £200 in all, inclusive of interest. Subject to the limit of £200, a depositor may, besides depositing £50 in the year, deposit in any year ending 31st December one sum or several sums for the purpose of replacing in whole or in part the amount of any one withdrawal previously made in the same year. In addition, deposits will be received for immediate investment in Government Stock, and in connection with Government Insurance and Annuities. Cheques are accepted as Savings Bank deposits.

Every deposit must be entered at the time in the depositor's book by the person receiving it, who will also sign and date stamp the entry. A depositor should carefully examine his book before leaving the office, and see that the entry is correct.

In addition to the receipt in the book, the depositor will receive for every deposit of £5 or over, an acknowledgment by post from the Savings Bank Department, London. If the acknowledgment does not reach the depositor in proper time (four clear days), or if it show any signs of erasure, or does not agree with the entry in his book, the depositor should immediately apply to the Controller of the Savings Bank by letter, and should renew his application again and again until he obtains a satisfactory reply.

Any person desirous of saving one shilling by means of penny contributions for deposit, may do so by purchasing with every penny so saved a Penny Postage Stamp, and affixing it to a form to be obtained at any Post Office.

Interest at the rate of £2, 10s. per cent. per annum is allowed until the sum amounts to £200. When the balance due in an ordinary account, inclusive of accumulated interest and dividend, exceeds £200, interest on £200 only is allowed. The calculation is made from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete pound shall have been deposited up to the last day of the calendar month preceding the day on which a warrant for repayment is issued; and after 31st December the interest is added to the principal.

Deposits may be made—

- (A.) By persons of full age, and not under legal disability.
- (B.) By married women.
- (C.) By children 7 years old and upwards.

- (D.) On behalf and in the names of children under 7 years old. In this case the money is not repayable until the children attain the age of 7, and is then payable to their signatures only.
- (E.) On behalf of insane persons by the committees of their estates.
- (F.) By two or more persons jointly on their own behalf. In this case neither person must have any other account in a Savings Bank.
- (G.) By one or more persons in trust for another person or persons, also named in the account. A person may act as trustee in any number of accounts, and at the same time have an account in his own name.
- (H.) By a duly registered friendly society, through its trustees. In this case deposits may be made without limit.
- (I.) By a duly registered Industrial and Provident Society, not chargeable with Income Tax. In this case deposits may be made without limit.
- (J.) By a charitable or provident society, penny bank, or similar institution, through the trustees or treasurer. In this case deposits may be made to the extent of £100 in any one year, and £300 in the whole, and if the consent of the National Debt Commissioners be obtained, without limit.
- (K.) By corporate bodies (subject to the approval of the Postmaster-General).
- (L.) By vicars and rectors of parishes and other official persons, being corporations sole, in their official titles. In these cases the ordinary limits apply.

Societies wishing to deposit under (E), (H), (I), (J), (K), and (L), must first apply for authority to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, sending a copy of their rules in the case of a society or other institution.

- (M.) In the name of the Registrar of any County Court. Deposits may also be made in accordance with the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament applicable to the respective cases. Trust moneys and equitable proceedings through a County Court; and under the Workmen's Compensation Acts without limit.

When an application for the withdrawal of money is made by more persons than one, they may request that the sum to be withdrawn may be paid to any one or more of them to the exclusion of the others, and in such case the warrant will be made out in the name or names of the person or persons specified in such request, and his or their receipt will be deemed to be the receipt of all the applicants.

All deposits standing in the sole name of a married woman domiciled in England or Ireland, will be deemed, unless and until the contrary is shown, to be the separate property of such married woman; and the fact that any deposit is standing in the sole name of a married woman, will be considered prima facie evidence that she is entitled to withdraw and receive the same, without the concurrence of her husband.

Payment of deposits by a married woman domiciled in Scotland, will take place subject to the provisions of the Married Women's Property (Scotland) Act, 1881.

Any woman who marries while she is a depositor, should forward to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department a certificate of her marriage, together with her deposit book, and the deposits will thereupon be entered in her married name.

Once in each year, on the anniversary of the day on which the first deposit was made, the depositor should forward the deposit book to the Controller of the Post Office Savings Bank Department in London, in order that it may be compared with the books of the department, and the interest due to the depositor inserted in it.

No charge is made for the book at first supplied to a depositor, or for books issued in continuation thereof; but if any depositor shall lose his book, he should immediately give notice to the Controller and state the circumstances in which the book was lost, giving the office and what year the account was opened and what amount is believed to be due therein; the number of the book should also be stated, if possible; and should he desire a new book, he must apply by letter to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, enclosing postage stamps or a Postal Order of the value of 1s. to pay for the new book.

When a depositor wishes to make a withdrawal from his account, he should fill up and forward to the Central Savings Bank Department a notice of withdrawal, which he can obtain at any Post Office Savings Bank. He will then receive by post a warrant, which he should present together with his book at the Post Office where payment is to be made. The receipt should be signed in the presence of the Postmaster.

Payment of a warrant is made only to the person named therein, or upon the production of an authority from that person, which may be given, as directed, on the prescribed form obtainable at Post Office transacting Savings Bank business, or by power of attorney under seal.

Where the person to whom a warrant is made payable cannot write, he must, when he presents the warrant for payment, affix his mark to the receipt at the foot of the warrant in the presence of some person who is known to the paying officer, and who can identify the person applying for the money as the person named in the warrant. This person must also attest the mark by his written signature.

Postmasters and other officers of the Postmaster-General employed in the receipt or payment of deposits, are strictly forbidden to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount deposited or withdrawn, except to the Postmaster-General, or to such of his officers as are appointed to assist in carrying out the provisions of the Post Office Savings Banks Act.

WITHDRAWALS BY TELEGRAPH AND BY RETURN OF POST.

A depositor may obtain payment from his account of any sum not exceeding £10 on the same day on which notice is given by defraying the cost of the necessary telegrams to and from the Controller, Savings Bank, London.

He may also, at a less cost for telegraphing, obtain payment from his account on the day after giving notice (i.e. by "return of post") of any sum not exceeding £20. The return of post warrants are addressed to the depositor at the Paying Office "to be called for" unless other directions are given in the telegram of withdrawal.

Application for withdrawal by telegraph should be made between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. (Saturdays 9 a.m. and 1 p.m.) at any Post Office Savings Bank which is also a Telegraph Office, but payment on the same day cannot be made at offices where telegraph business is restricted to the dispatch of telegrams. The depositor's book must be produced in all cases.

INVESTMENTS AND SALES OF GOVERNMENT STOCK.

A depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires to invest in Government Stock must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. Such investments can be made in Two and a Half per. cent. Consolidated Stock, Two and a Half per. cent. Annuities, Two and Three Quarters per. cent. Annuities (1905), or in Local Loans Three per. cent. Stock.

Within seven days from the receipt of such application the depositor's account will be charged with the current price of the Stock purchased and the commission, the necessary entries being made in his deposit book; and the depositor will be credited in the Government Stock Register of the Post Office Savings Bank with the equivalent amount of Stock, and a certificate sent him.

The minimum amount of Stock which may be purchased or sold is one shilling, and not more than £200 Stock can be credited to an account in any year ending 31st December, or £500 Stock in all.

For an immediate investment in Government Stock a deposit to an amount not exceeding the value of £200 Stock with the commission may be made in one year ending the 31st December, irrespective of the limits for ordinary deposits.

Dividends in respect of Stock standing to a depositor's credit will be carried to his deposit account.

A depositor who desires to sell the Stock standing to his credit, or part of the Stock, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, London, together with his deposit book and investment certificate, an application signed by him on a form obtainable at any Post Office Savings Bank.

Within seven days of the receipt of such application the sale will be effected at the current price of the day of sale, and a warrant will be sent the depositor for the amount realised, less commission.

The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of Stock, is 9d. for the first £25, and 6d. for every additional £25, with a further charge of 6d. in respect of every £100, or part of £100, Stock above £200.

Particulars regarding Stock certificates may be learned at any Money Order Office.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCE AND ANNUITY.

Any person between 14 and 65 years of age may insure his or her life for not less than £5 or more than £100. The lives of children between 8 and 14 years of age may be insured for £5.

If the amount of the annuity or insurance purchased is less than £100, further annuities and insurance may be purchased from time to time until the total amount is £100.

Immediate or deferred annuities of not less than £1, or more than £100, may be purchased through the Post Office on the life of any person over 5 years of age.

Forms of proposal for the insurance of lives and the purchase of annuities may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

The premiums are payable through the medium of Savings Bank deposit accounts, and are accepted in addition to ordinary deposits and deposits for immediate investment in Government Stock.

So long as there is a sufficient sum standing to the credit of the deposit account, each premium will be deducted therefrom as it becomes due, without the depositor being troubled in the matter, and notice will be sent as evidence that the premium has been paid. If the balance in the account is insufficient to cover any premium due, the depositor will be informed accordingly, in order that he may make a deposit, which may be done at any Post Office Savings Bank. If desired, the premiums can be transferred from the account of any person other than the annuitant or insured, with the consent in writing of the depositor.

INSURANCES.

The following examples show various ways in which insurances may be effected:—

The life of a male or female between 24 and 25 years of age may be insured for £10—

By an annual payment throughout life	£0	4	4
By an annual payment to the age of 60
of		0	4
By a single payment of		4	9

The payment of a sum of money may be insured on the attainment of the age of 55, 60, or 65 years, or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single or annual premium, and the payment of a sum of money may be insured at the expiration of 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, or 40 years, or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single premium according to the age of the insured person.

Insurances for sums from £5 to £25 may be effected without a medical examination, upon production of satisfactory evidence as to health; but in such cases, if the insured should die before the second annual premium becomes payable, the amount of the first premium, and no more, will be paid to his representatives; and if he should die after the payment of the second annual premium and before the third premium becomes payable, half the amount insured, and no more, will be paid to his representatives. In either of these cases, however, if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that the death of the insured person was caused by accident, the full amount insured will be paid. In any case, immediately after the payment of the third annual premium, the insured person is entitled to the full benefit of insurance.

Persons proposing to insure for more than £25 must undergo a medical examination by a medical practitioner appointed by the Postmaster-General, the cost of which is paid by the department. And persons proposing to insure for sums not exceeding £25 may undergo a medical examination, if they so desire, by payment of a fee of 2s. 6d. to the medical examiner. In all cases of insurance granted after medical examination, the insured person is entitled to the full benefit of insurance immediately the policy is granted.

No one life can be insured for less than £5, and no insurance above £5 will be granted to persons under 15 years of age.

If, after having paid not less than two annual premiums, an insured should be unable to continue or should desire to discontinue the payments, such sum of money as the National Debt Commissioners shall determine to be the surrender value will be returned.

Permission is granted to persons over 30 years of age, who have been insured 5 years, to reside in any part of the world free of any extra premium.

Forms of proposal may be obtained at any Post Office transacting Savings Bank business.

ANNUITIES, IMMEDIATE AND DEFERRED (OLD AGE PAY).

Premiums, with examples.

The sums charged for the purchase of Immediate Annuities or Deferred Annuities vary with the age (a certificate of birth or baptism is required as evidence of age) and sex of the person on whose life the Annuity is to depend, and in the case of Deferred Annuities with the number of years to pass before the commencement of the Annuity, and with the conditions of the contract as to the return or non-return of the purchase money.

Full tables of rates can be seen at any Post Office transacting Savings Bank business, and the cost of an Annuity in any particular instance and any other information can be obtained on application to the Controller of the Savings Bank.

Deferred Annuities can be purchased either by the payment of a lump sum or by annual instalments.

Joint Annuities.

Any two persons may purchase an Immediate Annuity on their joint lives, with or without continuance of the annuity to the survivor. The cost of any Joint Annuity will be furnished on application being made to the Controller of the Savings Bank, giving the age and sex of each of the persons on whose life the Annuity is to depend.

Life Certificates.

Before any half-yearly instalment of an annuity can be paid, the person on whose life the annuity depends must be proved to be alive on the date the instalment becomes due. A form of life certificate for this purpose is provided by the department.

TRUNK TELEPHONE LINES.

Public Call Offices in Edinburgh.—GENERAL POST OFFICE, open always. LEITH (Constitution Street), open from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. STOCK EXCHANGE, open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturdays to 2 p.m.

There is a Telephone Silence Cabinet at the General Post Office.

Communication by Telephone has been established between Edinburgh and the more important towns in the United Kingdom.

The Scale of Charges for three minutes' conversation is as follows:—

For distance not exceeding 25 miles . . . . .	3d.
For distances exceeding 25 miles and not exceeding 50 miles . . . . .	6d.
For distances exceeding 50 miles and not exceeding 75 miles . . . . .	9d.
For distances exceeding 75 miles and not exceeding 100 miles . . . . .	1s.
For every additional 40 miles or fraction thereof . . . . .	6d.

Special rates are charged where Submarine or other specially expensive lines are used.

When a Trunk conversation is between a caller or subscriber to the National Telephone Company's system and a caller or subscriber to the Municipal Exchange system at Portsmouth, the following additional charges, or 'terminal fees,' have to be paid:—

The period of conversation is three minutes from the time when the caller has been informed that the connection is completed, but any person, by preparing a double fee, may secure either the uninterrupted use of a Trunk line for six minutes or the option of extending a three minutes' conversation to six minutes on demand at the end of the first period. Callers are required to pay a Call Office fee of 2d. on inward Trunk calls, and also, in addition to the Trunk fee, on calls originated at Call Offices. No person is entitled to use a Trunk line continuously for more than six minutes.

Further information regarding Telephone Service can be ascertained by applying to the Secretary, General Post Office.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 6d. for twelve words, and 3d. for every additional word. The names and addresses of the sender and receiver being counted.

Telegrams in plain language, in any European tongue or in Latin, are charged for according to the number of words; but all words, not forming part of any European language or of Latin, and all unintelligible combinations of letters are charged for at the rate of five letters to a word.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person or firm in the same free delivery will be delivered at a charge of 2d. per copy in addition to a halfpenny for each word in the address of the copy.

When the terminal telegraph office, i.e. the office nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for the transmission covers the cost of delivery within three miles, or within the town postal delivery when that extends for more than three miles. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free within three miles only.

When the address is beyond the free delivery, portage is charged at the rate of 3d. per mile, or any part thereof, the charge being calculated from the limit of the free delivery.

The sender is responsible for the portage, and when the address is not within the free delivery, he must, if practicable, state the distance and pay the portage in advance.

If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal office, he must write the words 'by post' or 'by train' at the end of the address, and in the latter case he must pay the cost, or deposit 1s. if the cost is not known. If the telegram is to be posted to a place abroad, he must write 'Post —' at the end of the address, and prepay the postage.

A deposit for boat hire is required upon all telegrams addressed to a ship, unless the ship be alongside a wharf; any surplus is refunded.

Telegrams may be repeated at the request of the sender, by being telegraphed back from office to office, but no copy is given to the sender. The charge for repetition is one-half the ordinary tariff, a fraction of a halfpenny being reckoned as a halfpenny.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission. Should it be found that the telegram has been incorrectly transmitted, the amount paid will be refunded, or the receiver may have part of it repeated under the same conditions, but the minimum charge is 3d.

The sender should furnish his address, to enable the Department to communicate with him if necessary. When not telegraphed, it should be written on the back of the form.

The cost of a reply to a telegram, not exceeding forty-eight words, may be prepaid; and a Reply Form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any telegraph office, at any time within two months. If the Form be not used, it may within the same period be sent to the Secretary, G.P.O., and the value will be refunded to the sender. A Reply Form need not necessarily be used for a reply, but may be used to prepay any message.

Telegrams re-directed to a second address are liable, if any additional service is performed, to an additional charge of 6d. if the two addressees are within the same town, but if the addressees are in different towns the full inland rate is charged. Removals are registered free for one month when this is especially requested; and instructions for the re-direction of Telegrams at hours when the place of business is closed are registered on payment of £1, 1s. per annum; but in both these cases the telegrams are subject to the usual charges for re-direction and portage.

Persons not wishing to send to a telegraph office may post a telegram, addressed 'Telegram—Immediate,' in a wall or pillar box, or in the letter-box of a sub-post office. Telegrams may also be posted not enclosed in covers. Telegrams so posted are sent on to the nearest telegraph office by the next collection. The period of arrival at the postal telegraph office is regarded as the time of receipt from the public.

Telegrams posted insufficiently prepaid are forwarded to their destination, the difference of charge being obtained from the addressee; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

No combination of words is counted as one word, with the exception of those which are ordinarily coupled by hyphens, such as 'mother-in-law,' 'non-delivery,' 'fifty-one,' etc.

Certain exceptional names, such as O'Neil, MacDonald, De la Rue, are charged for as single words. So, too, are names with the prefix 'St,' as St Pancras, but double names like Bouverie-Tracy, although written with a hyphen, are counted as two words. Such abbreviations as 'can't,' 'don't,' 'shan't,' are counted as single words.

Figures are counted at the rate of five to a word; and in fractions according to the number of figures employed, one figure being counted for the mark of division,—thus  $\frac{1}{2}$  is one word, and 246 $\frac{1}{2}$  two words. In groups of figures a stop or oblique stroke is counted as a figure.

The symbols o/o, a/c, b/l, and c/o are each counted as a word.

Ordinal numbers are charged in the same way as cardinal, with the addition of one word for the affix st, nd, rd, th.

When a group of figures is followed or preceded by a letter, thus 123a or A123, the letter is counted as a word.

The sender may have any instructions, such as 'private,' 'confidential,' 'to be opened at once,' or the like, written on the outside of the envelope of the message. The instructions will be charged for as part of the message.

Telegrams addressed to a Telegraph Office to be called for are kept for two days.

Any person may register an abbreviated address on payment of the fee of 21s. a year. The address must consist of two words, one of which is the name of the town or place of delivery.

Telegraph offices are, as a rule, open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. on Sundays. There are, however, offices in several of the larger towns which are open longer; and at various offices in London and in the country the attendance is continuous.

G.P.O., EDINBURGH, ALWAYS OPEN.

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

Foreign telegrams are divided into two kinds—telegrams in plain language and telegrams in secret language. Those in plain language are composed of words, figures, and letters conveying an intelligible meaning. Those in secret language are divided into two classes, viz. code and cypher.

Code telegrams are composed of real words not forming comprehensible phrases, or of pronounceable groups of letters having the appearance of real words: words of more than ten letters are not allowed. Only English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin may be employed; the groups of letters must be pronounceable according to the usage of one of those languages.

Cipher telegrams are those containing series or groups of figures having a secret meaning. Telegrams consisting of groups of letters denoting commercial marks are allowed, and charged for at the rate of five letters to a word.

The address of the telegram must be paid for, and must not consist of less than two words, a name and town. Example: Hercules, Bombay.

The address of the sender is charged for, if transmitted; in any case, it must be written at the foot of the form.

In telegrams written in plain language the length allowed for a word is 15 letters; any additional letters are charged for at the rate of 15 letters to the word.

Subject to this limit, ordinary compound words and names written without break are counted as single words. If joined by a hyphen, or separated by an apostrophe or other sign of punctuation, they are counted as so many separate words. Compound numbers written in words and without break are also counted as single words, and limited as in the case of letters. The name of the place and country of designation in the addresses of telegrams are charged for as one word each, when so written by the sender, whatever their length.

Every separate letter or figure is charged for as a word. In European telegrams, every group of letters forming cypher and groups of figures are counted at the rate of five letters or figures to a word, and at the same rate for any excess. Bars of division, decimal points, and stops used in the formation of numbers are counted as figures. Letters added to figures to form ordinal numbers or to represent the number of a house are counted as figures.

A telegram addressed to several persons in the same town, or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, is charged for as a single telegram, and a sum of 5d. must be prepaid for every extra copy to be delivered if the number of chargeable words does not exceed 100; an additional sum of 5d. being charged for every additional 100 words or part of 100 words. In calculating the charge, all the names and addresses are included; but telegrams of this kind are not accepted for transmission by the routes of the North Atlantic cable companies, either for America or for transmission over the Pacific cable.

Telegrams may be sent from one place to another abroad by post. If the telegram be intended for delivery in the same country no charge for postage is made. If intended for delivery in another country and has to be forwarded over sea, a charge for postage is collected; and if the telegram is to be posted as a registered letter a registration fee of 2½d. is charged in addition to the charge for postage, if any.

TELEGRAMS TO AND FROM SHIPS BY WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Telegrams are accepted at any telegraph office for transmission by Wireless Telegraphy to certain of the principal Ocean Liners, to His Majesty's Ships, and also to certain Packets belonging to the Midland and Great Eastern Railway Companies and others.

Particulars of the service, together with information as to the charges, can be obtained at any Telegraph Office.

Telegrams from ships are also received at such coast stations, and are thence transmitted to their destination by wire.

STAMP DUTIES MANAGEMENT ACT, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 38).

Procedure for obtaining Allowance.—§ 9. Subject to such regulations as the commissioners may think proper to make, and to the production of such evidence by statutory declaration or otherwise, as the commissioners may require, allowance is to be made by the commissioners for stamps spoiled in the cases hereinafter mentioned (that is to say)—

- (1.) The stamp on any material inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated, or by any means rendered unfit for the purpose intended, before the material bears the signature of any person or any instrument written thereon is executed by any party;
- (2.) Any adhesive stamp which has been inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled or rendered unfit for use, and has not in the opinion of the commissioners been affixed to any material;
- (3.) Any adhesive stamp representing a fee capable of being collected by means of such stamp which has been affixed to material, provided that a certificate from the proper officer is produced to the effect that the stamp should be allowed;

- (6.) The stamp on any bill of exchange or promissory note which from any omission or error has been spoiled or rendered useless although the same, being a bill of exchange, may have been accepted or endorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee, provided that another completed and duly stamped bill of exchange or promissory note is produced identical in every particular, except in the correction of the error or omission, with the spoiled bill or note.

(7.) The stamp used for any of the following instruments; that is to say—

(a.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found to be absolutely void from the beginning:

(b.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended:

(c.) An instrument executed by any party thereto which has not been made use of for any purpose whatever, and which, by reason of the inability or refusal of some necessary party to sign the same or to complete the transaction according to the instrument, is incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended:

(d.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, which by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or for want of enrolment or registration within the time required by law, fails of the intended purpose or becomes void:

(e.) An instrument executed by any party thereto which is inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose is executed and duly stamped, or which becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected being effected by some other instrument duly stamped:

Provided as follows:—

(a.) That the application for relief is made within two years after the stamp has been spoiled or become useless, or in the case of an executed instrument after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within two years after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, or within such further time as the commissioners may prescribe in the case of any instrument sent abroad for execution, or when from unavoidable circumstances any instrument for which another has been substituted cannot be produced within the said period:

(b.) That in the case of an executed instrument no legal proceeding has been commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence, and that the instrument is given up to be cancelled:

(c.) That in the case of stamps used for medicines or playing cards, the medicines or cards bearing the stamps are produced to an officer and the stamps are removed therefrom in his presence.

Allowance for Misused Stamps.—§ 10. When any person has inadvertently used for an instrument liable to duty a stamp of greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used a stamp for an instrument not liable to any duty, the commissioners may, on application made within two years after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within two years after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if liable to duty, being stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused.

Allowance, how to be made.—§ 11. In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps the commissioner may give in lieu thereof other stamps of the same denomination and value, or if required, and they think proper, stamps of any other denomination to the same amount in value, or in their discretion, the same value in money, deducting therefrom the discount allowed on the purchase of stamps of the like description.

Stamps not wanted may be repurchased by the Commissioners.—§ 12. INCLUDING THE FURTHER OR 'SETTLEMENT ESTATE DUTY' (57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, Part I.).

Note.—Subject to any alterations which may be made by Finance Act, 1909.

Estate duty is payable on the principal value of all property, heritable and moveable, and proceeds and investments thereof, settled and unsettled, which passes, or which is by Act to be deemed to pass on the death of a person dying after 1st August 1894, either immediately or after an interval, or at a period ascertainable by reference to death, either certainly or contingently, and either originally or by way of substitutive limitation.

PROPERTY ABROAD.

Charge confined to moveable property, the owner of which dies domiciled in United Kingdom, or to property in which deceased was interested for life, and which was subject of a British trust.

EXEMPTIONS.

Estate duty not payable on the property of common seamen, marines, or soldiers, dying in His Majesty's service; nor

a. The Inland Revenue Office, No. 10 Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps every day except Saturday, from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. (Saturday, 10 to 12). The distributors and sub-distributors of stamps, and certain postmasters, also receive spoiled stamps for allowance.

A supply of forms of affidavit is kept at the Inland Revenue Office, and by the distributors, sub-distributors, and certain postmasters; and claimants may attend at the Inland Revenue Office, the office of a distributor, sub-distributor, or authorized postmaster and have the affidavits taken; or they may take the oath before a justice of the peace, and shortly afterwards lodge the affidavits and the stamps with any of the above officers. If not brought within ten days or a fortnight afterwards the stamp will not be allowed without a fresh affidavit. A ticket is issued stating when application is to be made for settlement. If application be not made within the stated time, the claim will be forfeited.

The stamps must be presented for allowance within two years after being signed or spoiled. In all cases the stamps must be delivered up to be cancelled.

On any pension or annuity by Indian Government to widow or child of a deceased officer of such Government.

Treasury may remit duty on art, or scientific collections appearing to them of national, scientific, or historic interest, given for national purposes, or to a university, or county council or municipal corporation.

Where husband or wife entitled, solely or jointly, to income of property settled by the other under a disposition taking effect before 2nd August 1894, and on his or her death survivor becomes entitled to the income of the property settled by such survivor, duty is not payable in respect of that property until the death of the survivor.

Estate duty is not payable on the deceased's death in respect of moveable property settled by a will or disposition made by a person dying before the 2nd August 1894, in respect of which property, inventory, or account duty has been paid, or is payable, unless in either case deceased, at the time of his death, or at any time since the will or disposition took effect, had been competent to dispose of the property.

Secs. 14 and 15 of the Finance Act, 1896 (59 and 60 Vict. c. 28), exempts from duty property simply reverting to a disponent after life interests created by him; also where a husband is entitled by law to the rents of his wife's real property, and he dies in her lifetime, such property is not to be deemed to pass on his death, by reason of the rents reverting to the wife.

AGGREGATION—ESTATE BY ITSELF.

All property passing on a death to form one estate, on which duty to be levied at the proper graduated rate on principal value. Property to be aggregated, and duty thereon levied not more than once on the same death. Provided that property in which deceased never had an interest, or which, under a disposition not made by him, passes immediately on his death to some person other than wife, husband, lineal ancestor or lineal descendant of deceased, is to be an estate by itself, on which duty payable at proper graduated rate. But if any benefit under a disposition not made by deceased is reserved or given to wife, husband, lineal ancestor, or lineal descendant of deceased, such benefit to be aggregated for determining rate of duty.

Small estates not exceeding £1000 net.—Where net value of property, heritable and moveable, exclusive of property settled otherwise than by the will of the deceased, does not exceed £1000, such property is not to be aggregated with any other property, but is to form an estate by itself.

SETTLED PROPERTY—SETTLEMENT ESTATE DUTY.

Where property liable to duty is settled by will of deceased, or having been settled by some other disposition, passes under it on death of deceased to some person not competent to dispose thereof, a further duty, called settlement estate duty, is payable on the principal value, except where the only life interest in such property after deceased's death is that of the husband or wife of deceased, or where the disposition took effect before 2nd August 1894. Property in which wife or husband of deceased takes an estate of terce or courtesy, or other like estate, is to be treated as property settled by will of deceased.

Provided—(a.) Estate duty and settlement estate duty are not payable twice under the same settlement, unless deceased at his death was, or at any time during continuance of settlement had been, competent to dispose of the property;

(b.) Where the interest of any person under the settlement fails or determines by reason of his death before it becomes an interest in possession, and subsequent limitations under the settlement continue to subsist, the property is not deemed to pass on his death;

(c.) Ad valorem stamp duty on settlement may be deducted from settlement estate duty;

(d.) Settlement estate duty not payable where lands or chattels are so settled by Act of Parliament or royal grant that no one of persons entitled in succession can alienate the same;

(e.) Settled property does not include property held under entail.

PERSONS LIABLE—HOW PAYABLE.

Executor or Intromitter—Inventory.—Every person who, as executor, nearest of kin, creditor, or otherwise, intromits with, or enters upon the possession or management of, any personal property, wheresoever situate, of which deceased, at his death, was competent to dispose, is to pay the duty thereon, on exhibiting and recording in the proper Sheriff Court, within six months of the death, an inventory (or additional or corrective inventory) of deceased's estate, and may pay, in like manner, the duty on any other property passing on such death, which, by virtue of any testamentary disposition of the deceased, is under his control, or in the case of property not under his control, if the persons accountable for the duty thereon request him to make such payment. He may state on inventory that he does not know amount or value of certain property which passed on the death, and undertake, as soon as ascertained, to pay duty thereon, and any further duty payable by reason thereof on the other property in the inventory.

Other persons liable.—Where executor not liable for duty, every person to whom any property passes for any beneficial interest in possession, and also, to the extent of the property actually received or disposed of by him, every trustee, tutor, curator, judicial factor, or other person in whom any interest in the property, or the management thereof, is at any time vested, and every person, in whom the same is vested in possession, by alienation or other derivative title, is liable therefor, excepting one who acts merely as agent for another in the management.

VALUE—DEDUCTIONS—REPAYMENT.

The principal value of property is the price which, in the opinion of the commissioners, it would fetch if sold in the open market at the time of deceased's death.

DEBTS AND FUNERAL EXPENSES.—Allowance against the gross principal value is made for reasonable funeral expenses; and for debts and incumbrances (including debts secured on heritage) incurred or created by the deceased bonâ fide for full consideration in money or money's worth, wholly for his own use or benefit, and taking effect out of his interest.

No allowance can be made for any debt in respect whereof there is a right to reimbursement from any other estate or person, unless such reimbursement cannot be obtained.

WHEN DUE—ADDITIONAL DUTY—INTEREST.

Due.—The duty which is to be collected on an inventory or account is due on the delivery thereof, or at the expiration of six months from the death, whichever first happens.

Income.—Every estate is to include all income accrued upon the property down to the date of deceased's death.

Additional duty.—Duty is, in the first instance, calculated at the appropriate rate according to the value of the estate, as set forth in inventory or account, but if afterwards it appears that for any reason too little duty has been paid, the additional duty is payable, and is treated as duty in arrear, unless a certificate of discharge delivered.

Heritable estate.—The duty upon an account of heritable property may, at the option of the person delivering the account, be paid by eight equal yearly instalments or sixteen half-yearly instalments, with interest at the rate of 3 per cent. from the date at which the first instalment is due, and the first instalment is to be due at the expiration of twelve months from the death, and the interest on the unpaid portion of the duty is to be added to each instalment and paid accordingly; but the duty for the time being unpaid, with such interest to the date of payment, may be paid at any time, and, in case the property is sold, is to be paid on completion of the sale, and if not so paid, is to be duty in arrear.

Interest.—Interest at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum is payable on estate duty from the date when the duty is due, or if the duty is payable by instalments from the date when the first instalment is due.

Small estates.—Interest is not charged on fixed duties of 30s. or 50s. if paid within twelve months of death.

Payment postponed.—Commissioners, when satisfied that duty on any property cannot, without excessive sacrifice, be raised at once, may postpone payment for such period, to such extent, and on payment of such interest, not exceeding 4 per cent. or any higher interest yielded by the property, and on such terms as they think fit.

COMPOSITION FOR 'DEATH DUTIES.'

Where from number of deaths on which property passed, or complicated interests of different persons therein, or other causes, it is difficult to ascertain amount of death duties (estate, inventory, temporary estate, legacy, and succession duties), or to do so without undue expense, commissioners on application, and all information being supplied, may assess such sum on the value of the property or interest as, in the circumstances, appears proper, and accept payment thereof in full discharge of all claims for death duties in respect of such property, and give a discharge accordingly. Discharge not to cover case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts.

FORM OF INVENTORY, ETC.—PENALTIES.

Executor, or other accountable person, failing to render all appropriate accounts and statements, renders himself liable to a penalty of £100, or a sum equal to double the duty unpaid for which he is accountable, according as commissioners elect, with power to commissioners to reduce penalty.

Forms.—All inventories, accounts, certificates, statements, etc., to be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed, and, if so required by commissioners, shall be in duplicate, and accounts and statements shall be delivered and verified on oath and by production of books. Any person wilfully failing to comply with this enactment to be liable to the penalty above.

The following further provisions apply to inventories under (2):—

The executor nominated in the will, or other applicant for representation, may apply to the commissary-clerk or sheriff-clerk, who shall prepare and record inventory and expedite confirmation;—the will or other testamentary writing, where the deceased left such, being produced to the sheriff-clerk or commissary clerk.

The commissary-clerk or sheriff-clerk may require such proof as he may think sufficient to establish the identity of the executor or other applicant for representation; and if he has reason to believe that the value of the whole estate exceeds £500, he shall refuse to proceed until satisfied as to the real value.

Commissary or sheriff-clerk to affix seal of court to any representation granted in England or Ireland, on same being sent to him with fee of 2s. 6d. Seal of English or Irish Probate Court affixed to confirmation containing English or Irish estate on payment of 2s. 6d. fee.

To husband or wife, children or their descendants, or lineal ancestors,*	Duty per ct.
Brother or sister, or descendants,	£1 0 0
All other relations or strangers,	5 0 0
	10 0 0

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or moveable estate, or out of any personal estate the deceased has power to dispose of, and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July 1888) upon every legacy out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof, or out of heritable estate, subject to his power of disposal: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or moveable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy; and (in case of a deceased dying before 1st July 1888) for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate, directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument. Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after the 1st July 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8, shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21 (2).)

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May 1853 are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42. Also, where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March 1880 does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof. (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13.)

The legacy duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment. (43 Vict. c. 14, § 11.)

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue have power to accept a composition for legacy duty under a will. (44 Vict. c. 12, § 43.)

Duty on legacies and residues in arrear—interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable. (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9.)

Where a full and true account containing all material facts has been rendered, liability for duty to cease after six years from settlement of account. (52 Vict. c. 7, § 14.)

Estates not exceeding £300, and deceased dying on or after 1st June 1881—payment of fixed duty of 30s. on inventory to be in full of claim to legacy duty on estate to which such inventory relates. (44 Vict. c. 12, § 36.)

Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duty may be obtained gratis, on application at Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

SUCCESSION DUTY.

(16 and 17 Vict. c. 51; 51 Vict. c. 8, §§ 21 and 22; 52 Vict. c. 7, §§ 10–12, 14, and 15; 57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, § 18 (1); and 59 and 60 Vict. c. 28, § 23.)

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and moveable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the capital value when the successor is competent to dispose (Finance Act, 1894, § 18), after allowance of the necessary outgoings, and in other cases as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as succession (§ 1).

The RATES OF SUCCESSION DUTY are the same as on LEGACY DUTY.

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

1. Succession from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100 (§ 18).
2. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty in respect of the same acquisition (ib.).

Duty on successions in arrear—interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable. (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9.)

(57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, § 35.)

on his aggregate income as represents the tax on income equal to his loss. (53 and 54 Vict. c. 8, § 23.)

§ 71 Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910. (1) No exemption, abatement, or relief under the Income Tax Acts which depend wholly or partially on the total income of an individual from all sources shall be given to any person, unless the person claiming the exemption, abatement, or relief is resident in the United Kingdom. Provided that any person who is or has been employed in the service of the Crown or who is employed in the service of any missionary society abroad or in the service of any of the native states under the protectorate of the British Crown, and any person resident in the Isle of Man or Channel Islands, and any person resident abroad who satisfies the Commissioners that he is so resident for the sake of health, shall be entitled to any relief, exemption, or abatement to which he would be entitled if he were resident in the United Kingdom, and if his total income from all sources were calculated as including any income in respect of which income tax may not be chargeable as well as income in respect of which income tax is chargeable. (2) Income tax shall not be payable in respect of the interest or dividends of any securities of foreign State or a British possession which are payable in the United Kingdom, where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that the person owning the securities and entitled to the interest or dividends is not resident in the United Kingdom; but, save as provided by this or any other Act, no allowance shall be given or repayment made in respect of the income tax on the interest or dividends on the securities of any foreign State or any British possession which are payable in the United Kingdom. Relief from income tax under this subsection may be given by the Commissioners either by way of allowance or repayment on a claim being made to them for the purpose within six months of the end of the year for which the income tax is charged.

§ 7. Revenue Act, 1911. (1) Where a husband is required under subsection (2) of section 72 of the principal Act, (Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, to make a return of his total income from all sources for the purpose of supertax and part of that total income is the income of his wife, the Special Commissioners may, if for any reason they consider that they are unable to obtain a satisfactory return of the wife's income from the husband, require the wife to make a return of her income, and in that case the wife shall be under the like obligation to make a return under the said section* as if she were not married, and the husband shall be relieved from any obligation to make such a return as respects the income of the wife. (2) Where supertax is charged in a case where the wife has been required to make a return under the foregoing provision, such part of the total sum payable in respect of the supertax as bears the same proportion to that total sum as the wife's income bears to the total income in respect of which supertax is charged shall be assessed on and recoverable from the wife in lieu of the husband. (3) This section shall have effect with respect to the supertax charged for the year beginning the sixth day of April nineteen hundred and nine and for any subsequent year as if it had been contained in the principal Act, and the provisions of that Act with regard to the assessment and collection of supertax, and the penalties for failure to make a return, shall apply accordingly.

Note.—The annual value shall run from 24th May instead of 5th May (6 Ed. 7, c. 8, § 6).

The Finance Act 1907 (7 Ed. 7, c. 13) introduced several changes:

1. Any individual whose total income from all sources does not exceed £2000 is assessable at 9d. in £ on his earned income, but must pay 1s. in £ on any interest, feu-duties, annuities, payments to sleeping partners, or other sums from which he is entitled to deduct 1s. in £. Earned income is derived from active carrying on of trades, professions, and employments, and from certain pensions paid by an employer. Interest, dividends, rents, and such like are not earned income. Claims for lower rate cannot be made after 30th September.

2. Employers are bound to give statements of all sums paid to employees.

3. Every person is liable to a penalty for failure to make a return of his income when required, whatever his income may be.

4. Appeals for repayment on account of diminished income are generally restricted to new business not over three years set up at beginning of the year of taxation, and to businesses ceased. In the latter case repayment for three years may be claimed if assessments exceeded total profits.

5. Allowances for wear and tear not made in one year may in certain cases be claimed in the following year.

6. A clergyman paying rent for his house may be allowed at most one-eighth of the rent for rooms used mainly and substantially for the purposes of his duty.

7. The time for penalties and increase of assessments is extended to three years.

8. A firm is assessable in one sum for all profits, but the allowances to an individual may be claimed by a partner for himself and allowed for him to the firm.

DEDUCTION OF INCOME TAX.

1. Dividends and interest from the public funds, foreign loans, foreign or colonial companies, interest of money borrowed on the security of rates, and official salaries and pensions, are subject to deduction of Income Tax at the rate in force at the date of payment.

2. Mortgage interest, feu-duties, and ground annuities are subject to deduction of Income Tax at the rate or rates in force during the period in which they have been accruing due.

Note.—No. 2 forms a guide for the deduction of Income Tax from dividends or interest payable out of the profits or gains of public companies in the United Kingdom.

INCOME TAX.

THE LAND TAXES.

Increment Duty.—A tax of 20 per cent. on any increase in the site value of land, to be exacted whenever the land is sold or let on lease for more than 14 years, and whenever it changes hands by death.

Undeveloped Land Duty.—An annual tax at the rate of  $\frac{1}{4}$ d. for every 20s. on the site value of land which has not been 'developed' by being built upon or by being used bonâ fide for any business, trade, or industry, other than agriculture.

Reversion Duty.—A special form of increment duty. It is a tax of 10 per cent. on the increased rental of land, to be exacted whenever a building lease runs out and a similar new lease is made.

Mineral Rights Duty.—An annual tax at the rate of 1s. in the 20s. charged on the rent paid to a landowner for the right to work minerals on his land.

LIQUOR LICENCES AND SPIRIT DUTY.

Full Licence.—Publicans who previously paid at rates varying from £4, 10s. to £60, will in future be charged at half their rental, with a minimum tax, varying according to population. As a consequence, highly rented premises will pay much more than formerly.

Beerhouse Licence.—Raised from £3, 10s. to one-third of the rental, with a minimum. As in the case of the full, or publican's licence, the highly rented houses will pay very much more.

Retailers' Off-Licences.—Duties vary according to rental; but have been raised all round. For example, a licence to sell spirits in bottles, which formerly cost £3, 3s. in England, may now cost anything from £10 up to £50.

Manufacturers' Licences.—For the old fixed duties of £1 on brewers of beer and £10, 10s. on distillers of spirits have been substituted a graduated duty on the amount produced. In the case of a brewer's licence the present duty of £1 will cover an output of 100 barrels only, and 12s. additional will be charged for every 50 barrels, or fraction of 50 barrels above that amount. The new distillers' licence will be £10 for any quantity not exceeding 5000 proof gallons, with other £10 for every additional 25,000 or fraction of 25,000 proof gallons.

Rectifiers of Spirits' Licence.—Raised from £10, 10s. to £15, 15s.

Makers' Licence for British Made Wines.—Raised from £1 to £5, 5s.

Wholesale Dealers' Licences.—Beer raised from £3, 6s. 1d. to £10, 10s.; spirits from £10, 10s. to £15, 15s. Dealers' licences formerly covered wholesale as well as retail business. In future wholesale dealers who wish to do a retail business will have to take out in addition an ordinary retailer's off-licence, subject, however, to a reduction of 25 per cent. of the scheduled rate.

Spirits Duty.—Raised from 11s. to 14s. 9d. per gallon.

Clubs.—A tax of 6d. on every £1 of liquor purchased for sale in the club.

TOBACCO DUTY.

Rate of duty on unmanufactured tobacco increased by 8d. per pound—from 3s. to 3s. 8d. Equivalent increases have been made on the rates of cigars, cigarettes, and manufactured tobacco.

MOTOR SPIRIT.

Finance Act, 1909-10, Sections 84 & 85.

§ 84.—(1) As from the thirtieth day of April nineteen hundred and nine there shall be charged, levied, and paid on motor spirit imported into Great Britain or Ireland a duty of Customs at the rate of threepence per gallon.

§ 85.—(1) Any person using motor spirit for purposes other than supplying motive power for motor cars shall be entitled, in accordance with the provisions of this section, to an allowance or repayment of the duty paid in respect of the motor spirit under this Act, and any person using motor spirit for any of the purposes mentioned in parts of the Fifth Schedule of this Act shall be entitled, in accordance with the provisions of this section, to an allowance or repayment of half the amount of the duty paid under this Act in respect of the spirit.

FIFTH SCHEDULE.

Part I.—Rebate of Motor Spirit Duty.

To a motor cab, motor omnibus, or other vehicle being a hackney carriage within the meaning of section four of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, while it is standing or plying for hire.

To a motor car which is constructed or adapted for use or is used partly for the conveyance of any goods or burden in the course of trade or husbandry, and partly as a motor cab, motor omnibus, or other vehicle being a hackney carriage within the meaning of section four of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, standing or plying for hire.

To a motor car kept by a duly qualified medical practitioner while it is being used by him for the purposes of his profession. (For fuller information see Finance Act, 1910.)

MOTOR CAR DUTIES.

(2) The unit of horse-power for the purpose of any rate of duty in the said Schedule shall be calculated in accordance with regulations made by the Treasury for the purpose, and section twenty-seven of the Revenue Act, 1869 (which relates to the prosecution of offences), shall, so far as relates to motor cars charged with duty under this section, be construed as if the horse-power of the car were substituted for the weight of the carriage.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to increase or affect the duty now payable in respect of any motor cab, motor omnibus or other vehicle being a hackney carriage within the meaning of section four of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, or to require a licence to be taken out for any motor car which is not a carriage within the meaning of that section.

(4) If a duly qualified medical practitioner proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioners or Council by whom the licence is granted that any motor car kept by him is kept for the purpose of his profession, he shall be entitled to an allowance in respect of the duty payable under this section on the licence for the car equal to half the amount of duty so payable.

(5) If any officer of the Army Motor Reserve produces to the Commissioners or Council by whom the licence is granted a certificate, granted in such manner and by such persons as the Army Council direct, that any motor car kept by him has been used for the purposes of the Army Motor Reserve under regulations made by the Army Council for at least six days in any year, he shall be entitled to an allowance in respect of the duty payable under this section on the car bearing the same proportion to the whole amount of duty as the number of days for which the car has been so used bears to a full year.

(6) No duty shall be payable under this section in respect of any motor fire-engine or ambulance.

(7) The Treasury may make regulations providing for the total or partial exemption, for a limited period, from the duty payable under this section of any motor cars brought into the United Kingdom by persons making only a temporary stay in the United Kingdom.

(98) The expression 'motor car' in this Part of this Act means any vehicle which is for the time being a light locomotive within the meaning of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896, as amended by any other Act, and includes a motor bicycle and a motor tricycle, but does not include a vehicle drawn by a motor car. (For fuller information see Finance Act, 1910.)

Insurance against Fraud and Embezzlement.

Although it may not be generally known that only a comparatively small percentage of the many acts of fraud and dishonesty committed by trusted officials is brought into public prominence, the necessity of employers holding adequate security on behalf of responsible persons whom they employ must be freely admitted. It is the obvious duty of Members of Corporations, School Boards, Parish and County Councils, Directors of Public Companies, Committees of Charitable Institutions, Friendly Societies, etc., to see that proper security is held on behalf of those whose funds they administer, and the moral and financial safeguard of a Guarantee Policy issued by a good Company should commend itself.

The Premiums charged by The National Guarantee and Suretyship Association are based on the statistics of nearly half a century's experience, and a full Prospectus containing an approximate table of rates for the various classes of risk will be sent on application. Special quotations are given where a large amount of Business is involved.

The Association is prepared to grant immediate security to Accountants, Solicitors, and others in connection with Court appointments, and will give full particulars of the special facilities afforded on application.

DEPOSITORS with this Company possess SECURITY of a high character. The Funds are lent over HERITABLE PROPERTIES WITHIN SCOTLAND. The Loans are, on the average, moderate in amount, and in very many cases are repayable by instalments, so that the margin of security is being steadily increased.

In addition to these Investments, the Company's UNCALLED CAPITAL, amounting to £170,000, furnishes a valuable Guarantee to Depositors; while the RESERVE FUND, amounting to £30,000, which is separately invested in BANK OF ENGLAND STOCK and CONSOLS, affords a still further substantial Security.

The Rate of INTEREST allowed on Deposits varies from 2 to 3½ per cent., according to the term for which the money is lodged.

BORROWERS will find the Company's arrangements simple and equitable. Parties are assisted in the Purchase of HOUSES or SHOPS for their own occupation, for which purpose the Company's system of accepting repayment by instalments is specially commended to Householders. The Rates for Instalment Loans have recently been reduced.

Borrowers do not, in virtue of obtaining Loans, become Members of the Company, and they incur none of the responsibilities of Shareholders. No Commission or Fines charged.

LAUNDRY.

HOUSE OF MERCY, ST. CATHARINE'S CONVENT,
4 LAURISTON GARDENS,
EDINBURGH.

---

SPECIAL ATTENTION.—The Sisters of Mercy who conduct this LAUNDRY—opened Thirty Years ago, and now enjoying extensive patronage from Families resident in Edinburgh, Schools, and Hotels—solicit further Orders. Terms moderate. Printed Price List to be obtained by application to the REVEREND MOTHER SUPERIOR at above address.

---

The Van collects and returns Washings in all parts of the City and Suburbs.

The House of Mercy has been established to board, lodge, and train as domestic servants, girls who have no home or proper protection. Numbers of girls are being lost daily for want of those safeguards which a respectable home ensures, and which are so necessary for a girl in a city like Edinburgh. Those only who visit the very poorest and lowest localities can know the terrible dangers and temptations by which such girls are surrounded. It is idle to deplore the number of those who fall, and who, besides losing their own souls, bring many others to ruin, if strenuous efforts are not at the same time made to avert this evil. The SISTERS, therefore, confidently appeal to the charitable for assistance in a work which, they venture to think, can have no small claim on their sympathy and support.

Annual Subscriptions, however small, and Donations of Money, Food, or Clothes, will be thankfully acknowledged by the Reverend Mother Superior, who will be happy to show Visitors over the Laundry on Thursdays and Fridays.
